Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

Instructions for contributors

MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and its related fields, from the period of 1650 to the present. MIH concerns itself primarily with apprehending the contextual origins and receptions of texts in order to recover their historical meanings. But we understand 'texts' in the broadest sense, so as to encompass multiple forms of intellectual and cultural expression. These include, but are not limited to, political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, both the social sciences and the natural sciences, music, architecture, and the visual arts.

1. SUBMISSIONS

Articles submitted for consideration should be sent to Modern Intellectual History by email at mih@bu.edu.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MIH. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/journal\_ModernIntellectualHistory.

The recommended length of articles is 10,000–12,000 words including footnotes. The recommended length of review essays is 5,000 words including footnotes.

Articles should normally be written in English. Spelling may follow either British or American convention but must be consistent.

Contributors should submit an electronic copy in Word as an email attachment.

3. PROOFS

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

4. OFFPRINTS

No paper offprints are provided, but the corresponding author will be sent the pdf of the published article. Print offprints may be purchased at extra cost at proof stage.

Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, University Printing House, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 1 Liberty Plaza, Floor 20, New York, NY 10006, USA. Periodicals postage paid at New York, NY and at additional mailing offices.

Copying

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may, therefore, copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of U.S. Copyright law) subject to payment to the C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 1479-2443/15. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge or from the American branch of Cambridge University Press.

Modern Intellectual History is included in the Cambridge Journals Online service which can be found at <http://journals.cambridge.org>. For further information on other Press journals access <http://cambridge.org/journals>.
