fourth expanded edition

NEW—Autumn 1982

Based on latest information just received, this indepth survey concentrates on the current situation and envisaged changes likely to affect investment and taxation. Emphasis is placed on the various forms of undertakings (joint ventures, compensation trade, etc.), exchange control, banking and insurance, and licensing.

Special emphasis is placed on a detailed survey of all Chinese taxes, with relevant tax rates, including those promulgated in connection with the implementation of the "Four Modernizations" (Foreign Enterprise Income Tax, Joint Venture Income Tax, Individual Income Tax, etc).

Prepared in direct cooperation with several top Chinese governmental agencies. Earlier editions received wide acclaim throughout the world (even from several authorities in China itself).

An extensive appendix includes several important agreements between China and other countries; an updated list of the precise addresses of all relevant Chinese authorities (where possible with telex and telephone numbers); and the text of the Joint Venture Law of July 8, 1979 in English, French and German).

Price: 145 Dutch Florins, including postage

This special survey is included in the complete looseleaf work, TAXES AND INVESTMENT IN ASIA AND THE PACIFIC, without extra charge.

Manuscripts

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from all scholars, including research students, on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, in triplicate, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing and, preferably, conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.
