

1981 BREWER PRIZE CONTEST

The American Society of Church History is pleased to announce a new competition for a booklength manuscript in Church History. The award will consist of a subsidy of $2,000.00 to assist the author in the publication of the manuscript. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society, and have printed on its title page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those topics relating to the history of Congregationalism.

Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 15 December 1981, with return postage included. No manuscript previously submitted will be considered. The award will be announced at the Spring meeting of the Society in 1982.

The 1980 winner of the Brewer Prize is "Preserving the Peace: Community Development and Ministerial Ideals in Revolutionary New Hampshire," by Douglas H. Sweet.

Oxford

Fundamentalism and American Culture

The Shaping of Twentieth-Century

Evangelicalism 1870-1925

George M. Marsden, Calvin College. "Remarkable for the range, richness and balance of its interpretations. . . . It will not, for a very long time, be surpassed or superseded."—William R. Hutchison, Harvard Divinity School. "The scholarship underlying the book is profound, the writing is graceful. . . . It would be hard to imagine a more satisfying treatment of the subject."—Mark A. Noll, Wheaton College. "A remarkable accomplishment. . . . Stands among the half-dozen or so most significant books I have read in American religious history."—Nathan O. Hatch, University of Notre Dame. "The finest historical study of this important subject that we are likely to have for a long time to come."—Library Journal

1980 320 pp.; 16 illus. $19.95

New World Metaphysics

Readings on the Religious Meaning of the American Experience

Edited by Giles Gunn, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. In more than one hundred selections from the works of poets, historians, philosophers, novelists, and theologians this unique anthology documents the quest for a spiritual vision or ultimate idea of order expressive of the American experience. "A rich and varied set of selections that can be read for pleasure or used to advantage in the framework of a course. . . . an unusually fine and useful volume." John F. Wilson, Princeton University. "A bold proposal for redefining both conventional approaches to religion and established approaches to the teaching of American studies."—Henry Nash Smith, University of California, Berkeley. "Carefully introduced, selected, and edited. . . . A paragon of interdisciplinary American studies."—John J. McDermott, Texas A&M University

1981 500 pp. cloth $19.95 paper $8.95

Religion and Sexuality

Three American Communal Experiments of the Nineteenth Century

Lawrence Foster, Georgia Institute of Technology. "Balanced and masterful."—Catherine L. Albanese, Wright State University. "Leads readers to a new and better understanding and appreciation of Shaker celibacy, Oneida Community complex marriage, and Mormon polygamy."—Klaus J. Hansen, Queen's University, Ontario. "An outstanding contribution."—Jan Shipps, Indiana University, Indianapolis. "A very insightful and persuasive study."—Marvin S. Hill, Brigham Young University

1981 384 pp. $19.95

Prices are subject to change.

Oxford University Press

200 Madison Avenue New York, N.Y. 10016

Two new contributions to Luther studies...

Luther and the Papacy

Stages in a Reformation Conflict

By SCOTT H. HENDRIX. Underlying the Protestant Reformation of the 16th century was the rupture of the medieval church, which was precipitated by the separation of Martin Luther and his supporters from the institution headed by the pope. Focusing on Luther and his relationship to the papal hierarchy, this work traces the course of that separation with emphasis on the decisive years 1517 to 1522.

(Coming in July) $14.95 cloth

Luther and His Mother

By IAN SIGGINS. Correcting much of the received tradition, Ian Siggins has undertaken original research that leads to a new understanding of the formative role that Martin Luther's mother—Margarethe ("Hanna") Lindemann Luder—played in his verbal, spiritual, and psychological development.

$4.95 paper

Of related interest...

Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue

Personal Notes for a Study

By PAUL C. EMPIE with a Foreword by William Cardinal Baum. Presented in a popular form, this is a report of the six dialogues held in the United States between Lutherans and Roman Catholics in the decade 1965–1975. It carries many vignettes from behind-the-scenes conversations between Paul C. Empie—statesman, church leader, and pioneer in ecumenism who co-chaired the dialogues with William Cardinal Baum—and other participants.

$3.95 paper

At your booksellers or from

 FORTRESS PRESS
2900 Queen Lane, Philadelphia, Pa. 19129

The Walter and Mary Tuohy Chair of Inter-religious Studies at John Carroll University is pleased to announce that the Tuohy Fellow for the 1981–1982 academic year will be Dr. W. H. C. Frend of the University of Glasgow. Dr. Frend will be on Campus for the Fall 1981 semester to give classes and public lectures on Early African Christianity. The public lectures will later be published in book form.

For more information, please contact Dr. Joseph F. Kelly, Department of Religious Studies, John Carroll University, University Heights, Cleveland, Ohio 44118.

A Call for Papers

The Spring, 1982 meeting of the American Society of Church History will be held at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va., April 22, 23, and 24. The theme of the meeting will be "The Church's Role as Peacemaker throughout History." The committee requests that those who have ideas about this theme and have papers which they might present should submit them along with vita for consideration before August 1, 1981. Send material to the chairperson:

James H. Smylie
Union Theological Seminary
3401 Brook Road
Richmond, VA 23227

Byzantium and the Rise of Russia

A Study of Byzantine-Russian Relations in the Fourteenth Century

John Meyendorff

Professor Meyendorff describes the role of Byzantine (predominantly ecclesiastical) diplomacy in the emergence of Moscow as the capital of Russia in the fourteenth century, and the cultural, religious and political ties which connected the northern periphery of the Byzantine Orthodox 'Commonwealth' with its center in Constantinople.

$69.50

Authority and Power

Studies on Medieval Law and Government Presented to Walter Ullmann on his Seventieth Birthday

Brian Tierney and Peter Linehan, Editors

Ranging from Visigothic Spain to fifteenth-century Poland, these essays serve to acknowledge Professor Ullmann's distinctive contributions to many areas of medieval studies, including papal history and canon law. New approaches in a variety of historical and legal-historical fields are indicated in the collection.

$59.50

Masters of the Reformation

Rival Roads to a New Ideology

Heiko Augustinus Oberman

Translated by Dennis Martin

A general survey of academic thought and its impact on the wider world from the late fifteenth century to the emergence of Luther. It marks a new direction in the historiography of the German Reformation—toward a social history of ideas.

$44.50

Of Prelates and Princes

A Study of the Economic and Social Position of the Tudor Episcopate

Felicity Heal

A comprehensive study of the social and economic position of the Tudor bishops, examining the sources and extent of their wealth and the uses to which they put it.

$47.50

Robert Winchelsey and the Crown, 1294–1313

A Study in the Defence of Ecclesiastical Liberty

J.H. Denton

The first detailed study of one of the most important medieval archbishops of Canterbury examines his relationship with the crown and with its agents during the last years of Edward I's reign and the first years of Edward II's.

Cambridge Studies in Medieval Life and Thought 14

$42.50

all prices subject to change

Cambridge University Press

32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022