America's FIRST BIBLE COMMENTARY

978-0-8010-3999-7 • 912 pp. • $225.00c

"With the publication of [Biblia Americana] a much truer picture is possible of a major Puritan leader who (for all his admitted quirks and faults) was a polymath in his learning, an omnivore in his reading, and a discerning critic in his biblical study. The set offers an illuminating portrait of Mather that is also an open window to his times."—Mark A. Noll, University of Notre Dame

978-0-8010-3900-3 • 1,360 pp. • $250.00c

"At a time when the history of biblical exegesis and the role of the Bible in American culture are being revisited, the Biblia Americana provides us with a commentary unequalled in size and scope by any other American. From these entries emerges another side of Cotton Mather than Salem witchcraft: a Mather of erudite learning, immersion in the Scriptures, and deep piety. This edition will be of great use to scholars and specialists, pastors and lay readers alike."—Harry S. Stout, Yale University
