In the December 1993 issue, because of errors in the computer coding of the text, there is a misprint in a sentence at the end of the first paragraph, p. 511. Correct it to: "Henceforth the Disciples, zealous for the gospel but ignorant of prophecy, threatened to wrest the New dispensation from its crucial roots in the Old—a momentous criticism of an evangelical movement that had endorsed the authority of 'the Bible' but thrown the bulk of its energies into recovering 'New Testament Christianity.' "

On p. 574 the sentence beginning on line 8 should read, "For a man who had twenty-seven wives and fifty-seven children, settled over three hundred communities in seven western states which have grown to over eight million, something he said worked."

On p. 607 note that the Membership List is for 1993.
