VICTORIAN SEXUALITIES

Edited by Andrew Miller

This special issue of Victorian Studies (volume 36, number 3) brings together some of the best work being done on conceptions of sexuality in the Victorian period. The essays integrate the analysis of sexuality with a wide range of interrelated topics and methods of study.

GALILEO, COURTIER

The Practice of Science in the Culture of Absolutism

Mario Biagioli

"In the history of science there have traditionally been those who study the social setting of scientists and those who study the science itself. . . . Biagioli's book takes the analysis one step further. . . . Galileo, Courtier is the most important book on Galileo to appear in half a century."—Albert Van Helden, Rice University

MEN AMONG THE MAMMOTHS

Victorian Science and the Discovery of Human Prehistory

A. Bowdoin Van Riper

Van Riper recreates scientists' first arguments for human antiquity, placing these debates within the context of Victorian science. Using field notes, scientific reports, and previously unpublished letters, he shows also how the study of human prehistory brought together geologists, archeologists, and anthropologists in their first interdisciplinary scientific effort. A vivid account of how the discovery of human antiquity forced Victorians to redefine their assumptions about human evolution and the relationship of science to Christianity.

IN THE WAKE OF CHAOS

Unpredictable Order in Dynamical Systems

Stephen H. Kellert

"A wonderfully clear and sane analysis of a tricky subject, and a powerful antidote to the contemporary vogue for chaos in popular science and critical theory. . . . Kellert's careful account shows how, in actual practice, order and turbulence, long term predictability and short term instability, balance each other in the physicists' picture of Nature, without betraying the fundamental program of Science. Clears away the fog admirably."—Stephen Toulmin

FROM MINERALOGY TO GEOLOGY

The Foundations of a Science, 1650-1830

Rachel Laudan

A comprehensive challenge to the commonly held view that geology emerged as a separate scientific specialty in early nineteenth-century Britain.

"We have waited a long while for a brand new English-language survey of the development of geology from the Scientific Revolution to its maturity as a science in the mid-nineteenth century. The wait proves to have been worthwhile, for this gap has now been filled by a volume that is assured, original, and highly stimulating. . . . It will surely become the basic survey of the rise of geology."—Roy Porter, ISIS

Membership of the Society, which normally includes a subscription to The British Journal for the History of Science, is open to all persons approved by the Council of the Society and elected at an ordinary meeting. The annual subscription for the membership year 1994 is £22.00 ($45.00) or £11.00 ($25.00) for associate membership, which includes students at centres of higher education. There is an Introductory Offer for ordinary members who pay £17.00 ($35.00) for the first year. Applications for membership should be made on a form which is available from the Society's Executive Secretary at the address below. Other sterling rates may apply to overseas members.

Meetings: The Society mounts an ambitious programme of meetings. The pattern is flexible, but includes a three-day summer meeting, usually held at a different British University or Polytechnic each year. About four other meetings, lasting for between one and three days, are held during the year, sometimes devoted to a clearly defined theme or an important anniversary, and often arranged in conjunction with other scholarly societies.

The British Journal for the History of Science is the official organ of the Society. All correspondence on the contents of the Journal should be addressed to the Editor, Dr Janet Browne, The Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine, 183 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BE, England. Books for review should be sent to the Reviews Editor, Dr John Henry, Science Studies Unit, University of Edinburgh, 21 Buccleuch Place, Edinburgh EH8 9LN.

Advertising: Contact the Journals Advertising Manager, Cambridge University Press, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU.

Other publications: BSHS Monograph Series is designed to allow the publication of monographic studies in the history of science quickly and cheaply. All correspondence on the subject of monographs, and any new suggestions for titles, should be sent to the Series Editor, Dr P. Weindling, Wellcome Unit for the History of Medicine, 45-47 Banbury Road, Oxford OX2 6PE, England. Monographs are available to members at a special price, post-free from the Society's Executive Secretary. Non-members may obtain them through bookshops, or post-free from the Executive Secretary. Titles are as follows:

2. The Letters of Georges Cuvier: A Summary Calendar. Ed. by Dorinda Outram. 1980. £4.50/$10.00 (£3.50/$8.00 to members).
3. Rationality and Ritual: The Windscale Inquiry and Nuclear Decisions in Britain. By Brian Wynne. 1982. £7.00/$15.00 (£5.00/$11.00 to members).
4. The Royal Society and Its Fellows 1660-1700: The Morphology of an Early Scientific Institution. By Michael Hunter. Reprint with additional material (expected early 1994).
5. Francis Bacon's Natural Philosophy: A New Source. A Transcription of Manuscript Hardwick 72A with Translation and Commentary. By Graham Rees, assisted by Christopher Upton. 1984. £7.90/$17.00 (£5.60/$12.00 to members).
6. Archives of the British Chemical Industry, 1750-1914: A Handlist. By Peter J. T. Morris and Colin A. Russell. Contributing editor John Graham Smith. 1988. £14.50/$31.00 (£9.00/$19.00 to members).
7. Index to the Scientific Correspondence of John William Dawson. By Susan Sheets-Pyenson. 1992. £20.00/$44.00 (£12.00/$26.00 to members).
8. Science and Nature: Essays in the History of the Environmental Sciences. Ed. by Michael Shortland. 1993. £10.00/$19.00 (£8.00/$15.00 to members).

Each year, the Society publishes a List of Theses in History of Science in British universities. This is available free to members, and at £3.00 ($6.00) to non-members on request to the Executive Secretary. Standing orders are accepted from members or non-members who wish to receive the list regularly.

The Society's Newsletter, an informal publication edited by Dr Frank A. J. L. James, RICHST, The Royal Institution, 21 Albemarle Street, London W1X 4BS, appears in January, May and September each year. It is free to members, £6.00 ($12.00) for institutions and non-members. The Society's Education Section also has a regular Newsletter, Education Forum, edited by Dr Isobel Falconer, Lumbo Farmhouse, St Andrews, Fife KY16 8NS.

Administrative business of the Society is handled by The Executive Secretary, Wing-Commander G. Bennett, 31 High Street, Stanford in the Vale, Faringdon, Oxfordshire SN7 8LH. The Society is registered in England as a Limited Company (No. 562208) and is a Registered Charity (No. 258854).
