Thirty years ago, China was emerging from one of the most traumatic periods in its history. The Chinese people had been ravaged by long years of domestic struggle, terrible famine and economic and political isolation. Today, China has the world's second largest economy and is a major player in global diplomacy. This volume, written by some of the leading experts in the field, tracks China's extraordinary transformation from the establishment of the People's Republic of China in 1949, through the Great Leap Forward, the Cultural Revolution, and the death of Chairman Mao, to its dynamic rise as a superpower in the twenty-first century.

The latest edition of the book includes a new introduction and a seventh chapter that focuses on the legacy of Deng Xiaoping, the godfather of China's transformation, under his successors Jiang Zemin and Hu Jintao. Under Mao, China challenged the outside world ideologically and militarily. Today China's challenge as an economic and diplomatic superpower may prove even more formidable.

Zero and Other Fictions

Huang Fan

Edited and translated by John Balcom

“This is Huang Fan’s fiction at its finest. These subtly crafted stories leave a deep impression that deepens with time. Zero immerses the reader in a society that simultaneously entices and entraps, inciting real confusion as to its actual workings. Written in the early 1980s [...], the story transcends identifiable times and locales to masterfully query global power structures.”

Protest with Chinese Characteristics

Demonstrations, Riots, and Petitions in the Mid-Qing Dynasty

Ho-fung Hung

“An excellent book, carefully researched, well argued, and well written, and it makes important contributions to the field.

Protest with Chinese Characteristics is original and theoretically provocative, and I am not aware of any other book that has done the same work.”

Instructions for Contributors

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from scholars, including postgraduate students, on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party.

The China Quarterly will consider two main types of submissions: Regular articles (up to 8,000 words, including footnotes): in-depth and theoretical pieces which should present original research in combination with analytical argument; Research reports (up to 4,000 words, including footnotes): shorter pieces based on primary research and empirical evidence. We will not consider manuscripts that are under consideration elsewhere, or that have been published in any form.

Manuscripts should be submitted to The China Quarterly Editorial Office, School of Oriental and African Studies, Thornhaugh Street, London, WC1H 0XG, UK, chinaq@soas.ac.uk. If you submit a hard copy, please provide a master copy containing full contact details and an anonymised electronic version of the article (preferably as a Word document) on disc. If you send your manuscript by email, please make sure you include your full contact details and send an anonymised copy of the article as well as a master copy. An abstract of 100–150 words should also be provided. All submissions should be typed in double-spacing with footnotes at the end; and should conform to the styling of The China Quarterly (see below).

Style

Romanization and Chinese characters

Use pinyin without tone/diacritical marks, except the following, which use the Wade-Giles system: Chiang Kai-shek, Sun Yat-sen, Taipei, Kuomintang, etc.; names of people living outside mainland China. Give Chinese characters on the first occurrence of each Romanization, to assist in proof-reading.

Chinese characters are incorporated into article texts (ie. English (pinyin, characters)) so authors must provide Chinese characters for all Chinese used in the main text (not footnotes) on first appearance, including pinyin phrases, people's names and geographical locations. However, Chinese characters are not needed for names of provinces and province capitals, well-known leaders (Mao Zedong, Deng Xiaoping, etc.)

Numbers

One to ten spelled out, 11 or more in figures; per cent in text, but % in footnotes. Dates: 2 March 1993. Page references: pp. 324-26 but pp. 324-336.
