

Beginning November 1977, the Association will charge four dollars to reinstate a membership suspended when mail has been returned to us for an incorrect address. Periodicals returned by the post office may be obtained at the price of two dollars each. Please let us know when you change your address.

AFRICAN STUDIES NEWSLETTER, Vol. X, No. 6, December 1977. Editor: Claudia Bruce. Published six times a year by the African Studies Association. Contributions should be sent to: African Studies Newsletter, Epstein Service Building, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts 02154. Receipt of the African Studies Newsletter, the African Studies Review, and Issue is automatic with membership in the African Studies Association. Domestic claims for non-receipt of issues must be made within six months of the month of publication—overseas claims must be made within one year. [Members are advised that the Post Office does not forward periodicals. To avoid loss of publications or premature suspension of membership, members should notify the Association in writing at the time of any change of mailing address.] Copies of the African Studies Newsletter damaged in the mail will be replaced without charge.
