

Law & Society Review
BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author, year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé, 1967: 167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript and double spaced. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order beginning with the oldest. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: LAST NAME, First name (year) Title of book.
City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: ARNOLD, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace and World.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

IN DEFENSE OF AMERICAN LIBERTIES

A History of the ACLU

SAMUEL WALKER

"This book is more than a compelling history of the ACLU. It is the fascinating story of America's most exciting legal struggles and of rights reviled in one era and vindicated in the next" —Eleanor Holmes Norton. "As much a history of vital issues in American life in the past 75 years as it is an account of the ACLU....Superb" —Norman Cousins. "Should be read by every liberal, libertarian, conservative, and reactionary in America" —Robert F. Drinan, S.J. $24.95, 450 pp.

BETWEEN PRISON AND PROBATION

Intermediate Punishments in a Rational Sentencing System

NORVAL MORRIS and MICHAEL TONRY

In this thought-provoking volume, two of the nation's leading criminologists argue for a comprehensive range of intermediate punishments to reform the present system's overemphasis on imprisonment or probation. They demonstrate how such intermediate punishments would better serve the needs of society. $22.50, 272 pp.

AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS

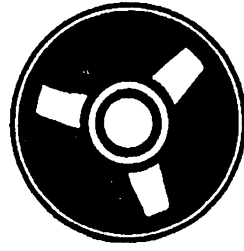

Bankruptcy and Consumer Credit in America

TERESA A. SULLIVAN, ELIZABETH WARREN and JAY LAWRENCE WESTBROOK

Based on the largest empirical study of consumer bankruptcy ever done in America, this comprehensive volume provides a wealth of information on who goes bankrupt and why.
