The Classical Quarterly

Published for The Classical Association

Editors

Rhiannon Ash, Merton College, Oxford, UK

John Wilkins, University of Exeter, UK

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for nearly 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history and philosophy. Two substantial issues (around 300 pages each) of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

Britannia

Published for The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

Editor

Richard J. Brewer, National Museum of Wales, UK

Britannia has established itself as a major national and international academic journal. It is the foremost journal for the study of the Roman province of Britannia. It contains authoritative and significant articles, short papers and book reviews on all aspects of the archaeology and history of Roman Britain and its kindred studies - the latter including the Late pre-Roman Iron Age, the post-Roman period, other provinces of the Roman Empire - attracting contributions from experts around the world. In addition, Britannia includes an annual survey of new discoveries - sites, excavations, finds and inscriptions - pertaining to Roman Britain; this is an essential tool for research relating to the Roman period in Britain.

The Selected Letters of Nikos Kazantzakis

Nikos Kazantzakis

Edited and translated by Peter Bien

The life of Nikos Kazantzakis—the author of Zorba the Greek and The Last Temptation of Christ—was as colorful and eventful as his fiction. And nowhere is his life revealed more fully or surprisingly than in his letters. Edited and translated by Kazantzakis scholar Peter Bien, this is the most comprehensive selection of Kazantzakis's letters in any language.

“These crystalline and eloquent translations of Nikos Kazantzakis’s letters help us grasp his intellectual intensity and spiritual verve. He emerges as a thoughtful, ardent man who was single-minded in his search for wisdom. This is an intriguing and compelling volume that highlights the nexus between Kazantzakis’s life and literary art.”

—Darren J. N. Middleton, author of Broken Hallelujah: Nikos Kazantzakis and Christian Theology

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES

SENATE HOUSE, MALLETT STREET, LONDON WC1E 7HU

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies was founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history, art and archaeology in the ancient, Byzantine and modern periods. Membership is open to all and there is a reduced rate for students.

MEMBERSHIP RATES

Rates are as follows: full members £47, £46 for those who pay by direct debit; student associates £25; corporate members £200. Life membership is available at £235 to those over 65 years of age after five years' full membership. Institutional subscriptions are available from Cambridge University Press. Please consult the Society's website for further details (hellenicsociety.org.uk).

PUBLICATIONS

The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports are published annually and sent to all members of the Society. Back numbers of The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports may be ordered from the Society.

THE JOINT LIBRARY

The Society helps to maintain the Joint Library in conjunction with the Roman Society and the Institute of Classical Studies. Membership of the Hellenic Society allows the reader to borrow (within the UK) up to four books at a time, either in person or by post.

LECTURES

The Society arranges an annual lecture series in London, and helps to arrange other lectures in collaboration with the various local branches of the Classical Association: a programme of all these lectures is circulated in September to UK members and is posted on the website.

GRANTS

The Society aims to help those engaged in Hellenic studies at all levels, and to this end it makes grants of various kinds (further details and application forms are available from the website).

- Schools teaching Greek language, history or civilisation may apply for grants: generous donations from the A.G. Leventis Foundation have recently enabled the Society to increase the grants awarded, in number and size.
- Postgraduate students and other scholars engaged in specific areas of research may apply for grants from the Dover Fund.
- Institutions (typically, but not exclusively, universities) may apply for a grant from the Council of the Society, to fund academic conferences and other events.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE JOURNAL

Contributions should be anonymised and sent, preferably electronically, to the Editor r.w.brock@leeds.ac.uk, with the subject 'JHS', or to Dr Roger Brock, Department of Classics, University of Leeds, Leeds LS2 9JT.

A style guide and further information on submission of copy and illustrations are available on the Society's website. Books for review should be addressed to the Librarian at the Society address. The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
