OXFORD BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Celebrating 5 Years of Oxford Bibliographies in Classics

YOUR BEST RESEARCH STARTS HERE .....

A project that started with you

In recent years, the explosion of original research and its increasing accessibility through new technologies is a blessing for researchers, but also a tremendous challenge.

Oxford Bibliographies in Classics was developed out of market research to address this problem by offering selective annotated research paths that are written by experts and which guide research by recommending the best sources on a topic.

"Oxford Bibliographies is 'right smack on' with its tiered levels of information, running from general to highly specialized...it doesn't get any better than a respected, well-known scholar selecting the best of the best."

Steven Ozment, MCLEAN PROFESSOR OF ANCIENT & MODERN HISTORY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

In 2009 Classics started with: 45 articles.

In 2015 Classics has: 200+ articles.

Learning Latin the Ancient Way: Latin Textbooks from the Ancient World

Eleanor Dickey

Paperback ISBN 9781107474574 | 112 pp.
Available January 2016

Read more at www.cambridge.org/dickey/learning\_latin

Eleanor Dickey revives the methodology that aided Greek speakers in the Roman empire: using Latin-learning materials containing authentic, enjoyable vignettes about daily life in the ancient world. These stories provide priceless insight into daily life in the Roman empire, as well as into how Latin was learned at that period. They were all written by Romans in Latin that was designed to be easily understood.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15-23 Greenfield Crescent, Watford, WD18 8PH (tel: 01923 239300), e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

GREECE & ROME EDITORIAL POLICY

Greece & Rome is a journal which delivers scholarly research to a wider audience. It showcases original and informative articles on ancient history, literature, art, archaeology, religion, philosophy, and reception of the ancient world. Although its content reflects current research and its contributors include leading figures in the field, undergraduates and general readers who wish to be kept informed of current thinking will also find it engaging and accessible, as well as professional scholars in Classics and in other disciplines. With the wider audience in mind all Greek and Latin quotations are translated.

NEW SURVEYS

A subscription to Greece & Rome includes a supplement from the New Surveys in the Classics series. These supplements have covered a broad range of topics, from key figures like Homer and Virgil, to subjects such as Greek tragedy, thought and science, women, slavery, and Roman religion. Selected back volumes can be purchased as books from Cambridge University Press.
