The Classical Association

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5. 5s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association. They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review 30s., Quarterly 25s.; combined subscription £2. 13s.), though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 20s.

Copies of the final issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (covering the years 1945-7) and of the volume for 1939-45 can still be obtained for 6s. each from Professor L. J. D. Richardson, University College, Cardiff, who can also supply many of the pre-war back numbers at 2s. 6d. per volume, post free.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Hooker, The University, Birmingham 3. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (Professor L. J. D. Richardson, University College, Cardiff, and Mr. T. W. Melluish, Bec School, London, S.W. 17) or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the District Branches—viz. Aberystwyth, Bedfordshire, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northamptonshire, North Staffordshire, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales (Bangor), Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Shrewsbury, Southampton, South-Western (Exeter), Sussex, Swansea, Tees-side, Worcester and Malvern.

The Lyric Age of Greece

ANDREW ROBERT BURN

This book is an account of the Greek world in the seventh and sixth centuries B.C., the Greece that had emerged from the Minoan and Homeric ages, to undergo during these two centuries a revolutionary period of expansion and transformation which was to enable it in the fifth century to withstand the Persian menace and to flower into the 'classical' age of Greek civilization.

The Etruscan Lion

W. LLEWELLYN BROWN

In this study of the lion and its importance as a favourite subject in Etruscan art from the seventh to the third century B.C., the author also deals with the nature and sources of the 'orientalizing' influence in Etruria, and many problems of Etruscan and Greek art in the seventh century are illuminated.

Menander: Dyscolus

Edited by H. LLOYD-JONES

Regius Professor of Greek in the University of Oxford

This is a completely new text, which makes use of the published facsimiles of the editio princeps which appeared in 1959 and takes full advantage of the proposals and comments of other scholars. 15s. net

An English translation has been published under the title of The Bad-Tempered Man or The Misanthrope, the translator being Philip Vellacott; there is a Foreword by Christopher Fry. 10s. 6d. net
