

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s. (not charged to Libraries). Dr. J. W. Mackail in The Journal of Roman Studies: 'This wholly delightful book should have a place in every scholar's library. It contains an immense mass of information never before set forth. Every page is interesting. We seem to listen throughout to the best kind of talk, full of lively wit and bubbling humour and yet keeping a large and full course.'
