

New eJournal

Political Science Jobs New eJournal from APSA

In July 2012, APSA will launch a new monthly and online journal focused on jobs in political science. Political Science Jobs contains active job listings from APSA's eJobs database. The combination of the new online journal and the daily APSA eJobs database provides a continued platform for a transparent, efficient, and ethically grounded political science labor market. APSA has maintained an open academic job market for many years, and this new journal forms the next phase of these efforts.

Format and Frequency

Political Science Jobs will include all active positions in a monthly downloadable PDF and link to the searchable eJobs system online.

APSA Members

APSA members (individuals and departments) will have free access to the online journal as a benefit of membership. All members will also receive free access to the daily PDF of eJobs listings.

Replacing PS Supplement with Political Science Jobs

Political Science Jobs replaces the former PS Supplement of job listings. The April 2012 PS Supplement is the last published volume since establishing the journal in 2008 to fulfill federal regulatory requirements tied to international hiring requirements. These federal rules recently changed to recognize online or web-based professional journals as an eligible outlet.
