Editor

Iain Fenlon, King's College, Cambridge, UK

Early Music History is devoted to the study of music from the early Middle Ages to the end of the seventeenth century. It includes studies pursuing interdisciplinary approaches and developing new methodological ideas. The scope includes manuscript studies, textual criticism, iconography, and the relationship between music and society.

Senior Editor

Elaine Aston, Lancaster University, UK

Associate Editor

Charlotte Canning, The University of Texas at Austin, USA

Theatre Research International publishes articles on theatre practices from all continents in their social, cultural, and historical contexts, their relationship to other media of representation, and to other fields of inquiry. The journal seeks to reflect the evolving diversity of existing as well as emerging critical idioms prevalent in the scholarship of differing world contexts.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions should be sent to the editor:

Professor Steven Huebner
McGill University
555 Sherbrooke West
Montreal, Quebec H3A 1E3
Canada
huebner@music.mcgill.ca

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless return postage is provided.

Essays should normally be no more than about 15,000 words in length. 6,000 words is a normal lower limit, though exceptions can be considered if the subject matter warrants it. Authors should indicate the word count with the original submission.

When an article has been accepted for publication the author should send the final version as a Word file on disk or on email to the editors while also posting a hardcopy version with music examples and photographs. Music examples and photographs can be submitted as electronic files — eps format should be used with a jpg or pdf file for printing out, photographs should be scanned at 300 dpi. Manuscripts should be double spaced throughout and printed on one side of the paper only and hand-written corrections to music examples for drawing should be as clear as possible. Italic and bold fonts can be used, right margins should be left unjustified. An abstract of about 8 lines should be written to start the paper. An author biography of about 6 lines should be written.

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and be typed, double spaced, on separate pages at the end. Musical examples, figures, tables, etc. should be supplied on separate sheets.

Contributors who wish to reproduce photographs should provide good black and white prints, full details of the source and the full address of the copyright holder if this differs. Photographs will not normally be considered unless they are an intrinsic part of the contribution, and their inclusion will always be at the discretion of the editors. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript. The full address of the copyright holder should be provided.

Punctuation should follow standard British practice. Single quotation marks should be used with double reserved for quotations within quotations. Punctuation that is not part of the quoted material should be outside closing quotation marks, as should footnote indicators. Longer quotation should be indented left without quotation marks and double spaced. Prose citations should be in English unless the original is of particular importance, unpublished or inaccessible, in which case the original should be followed by a translation in square brackets. Verse citations should be in the original language followed by a prose translation in square brackets.

Dates should be on the following model: c. 1740, 1840s, 5 February 1943. References should be to: Act I scene 2, op. 1 no. 2 in E major, Ex. 12 and Exx. 12–14, Fig. 3 and Figs. 6–9, motif(s) and leitmotif(s). For precise identification of pitch, use this system.

Sample footnotes (do not abbreviate journal titles):

- ¹ John Whenham, Claudio Monteverdi: 'Orfeo', Cambridge Opera Handbooks, 3rd edn (Cambridge, 1996), 44–6.
- ² Gerald Abraham, ed., The Age of Beethoven, 1790–1830, New Oxford History of Music, 8 (Oxford, 1982), 100–6.
- ³ Curt von Westernhagen, Wagner: A Biography, trans. Mary Whittall, 2 vols. (Cambridge, 1978), II, 77f.
- ⁴ Winton Dean, 'French Opera', in Abraham, Beethoven, 137–46.
- ⁵ Ernest Newman, The Life of Richard Wagner, IV (1947; rpt. New York, 1981), 212–15.
- ⁶ Edgar Istel, 'Beethoven's Leonora and Fidelio', Musical Quarterly, 7 (1921), 228–31.
- ⁷ K. T. Rohrer, '“The Energy of English Words”: A Linguistic Approach to Henry Purcell's Method of Setting Texts', Ph.D. diss. (Princeton University, 1980), 33.
- ⁸ Rohrer, 249n3.
- ⁹ Whenham, Monteverdi: 'Orfeo', 57.

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and are able to return the corrected proofs, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receipt.
