

Subject Index

- abyssal thinking
 - and neocolonialism, 202
 - radical co-presence, 201
- Adam Smith and the Circles of Sympathy*, 142
- affiliative cultural connections, 114
- aggregative democracy, 97–98
- agonistic democracy
 - versus antagonism, 99–100
 - constitutionalism and democracy perceived
 - as guiding norms, 317
 - defined, 99
 - norm contestation, 315
 - normative baggage, 317
 - political parties in, 106–7
 - relation between fact-based and value-based dynamics, 316
 - and right-wing populism, 104
- all-affected principle
 - civic mode of citizenship, 46
 - Goodin on, 46–47
 - interlinked interests, 47
- all-subjected principle, 46
- antagonism
 - versus agonistic democracy, 99–100
 - in politics, 100
 - post-foundationalist politics, 95
- anti-essentialist politics, 96
- anti-essentialist politics in Europe, 104–5
- authoritarianism in representative democracies, 83
- Bolsonaro, Jair, 374
- Border Lemons (cultural strategy), 138
- border politics
 - cross-border citizenship culture, 143–44, 149–51
 - MEXUS: Geographies of Interdependence*, 147–48
 - performative protest movements, 135–36
 - US-Mexico, 127–51
- boundaries in an closed democratic picture
 - acceptable inputs to, 30–31
 - breaches, 31
 - and civic criticism, 47–48
 - and civil rights, 48
 - and gatekeeping, 29
 - scope and limits of authority, 31
 - voting constituency, 29–30
- boundaries in an open democratic picture, lack of, 34
- Brazilian representative democracy challenges
 - authoritarianism, 83
 - dark money, 83–84
 - fake news, 84–85
 - institutional hijacking, 85
 - juridical systems, 86–88
 - Operation Lava Jato, 88–91
- Brazilian representative democracy steps for change
 - court independence, 91–92
 - institutional watchfulness, 92
- Brexit, 54–55, 107–9
- Bridge Staff*, 141
- Camera Obscura*, 146
- Cedar Trees Institute (CTI), 1, 374, 376
- citizenship
 - civil rights and, 42–43

- civil versus civic modes, 40–46
- cross-border citizenship culture, 143–44, 149–51
- civic mode of citizenship
 - activity constrained by civil order, 45–46
 - all-affected principle, 46
 - versus civil mode, 40–46
 - democratization of, 48–50
 - order constrained by civic activity, 45–46
 - picture of democracy in, 43–44
 - prior to civil citizenship, 44
 - in representative democracy, 73–77
 - scope of, 45
 - solidarity as respect as respectfulness, 49–50
- civil mode of citizenship
 - all subjected principle, 46
 - versus civic mode, 40–46
 - civil rights and, 42–43
 - democratization of, 48–50
 - picture of democracy in, 43
 - scope of, 44–45
 - solidarity as respect as observance, 49
- civil rights
 - breaches of, 50
 - and democratic boundaries, 48
- Coastal Gas Link (CGL), 337–38
- collective decision-making, 27
- colonial states
 - in closed democratic picture, 34–35
 - Indigenous people as full members, 30
 - in open democratic picture, 34–35
- community-based democracies. See also participatory democracy
 - collective decision-making, 27
 - defined, 2
 - UCSD Community Stations, 135–48
- community-based democracies and populism. See also populism and democracy
 - COVID-19 pandemic, 72–73
 - individual rights and entitlements, 70–73
 - levels of institutional scale, 77–80
 - market-based logic, 72
 - meritocracy, corrosiveness of, 71
 - patriotism in, 71–72
 - role of, 71
- concretization
 - colonial states, 250–51
 - defined, 236–37
- conditional authority, background, 332–33
- conditional authority in Europe
 - 15M activists, 333–34
 - commonality of, 333
- European Commission monitoring national spending, 334
- European Court of Justice (ECJ) over conflicting national legislation, 335–36
- loans to indebted countries, 334
- several practices in concert, 344–45
- conditional authority on Turtle Island
 - authority of modern treaties, 336–37
 - conditional forms of authority, 337
 - potlache system, 338–39
 - practices from bottom-up, 337–38
 - several practices in concert, 345–46
- conditional authority, preliminary typology
- relationship capable of complex tensions, 340
- unidirectional condition setting used to deliberately upset power imbalance, 340
- where conditions are mutual between parties, 340
- constitutionalism modern challenges
 - processes of social alienation, regional disintegration and fragmentation, 311
 - rule of law and role of law, 311
- contingency from anti-essentialist perspective, 95–96
- conviviality, Gitxsan, 291–92, 295–96
- criticism
 - and civil/civic picture of democracy, 47–48
 - in closed democratic picture, 28
 - in open democratic picture, 33–34
 - in representative democracy, 110–24
- Cross-Border Commons*, 145–46, 147
- cultural validation, 327, 329
- Culture and Imperialism*, 111
- cycle-grid model (norm contestation)
 - defined, 318
 - and sustainable normativity, 323–25
- dark money in representative democracies, 83–84
- de Saussure, Ferdinand, 94, 97
- deliberative democracy, 97–98
- demarchy citizenship, 382
- democracy
 - conditions at end of, 39
 - derivation of, 382
 - elusive concrete definition for, 55–56
 - rift between rhetoric and lived experience, 152–54
- democracy, challenges to articulation, 58–59

- democracy, challenges to (cont.)
 Gaia crisis, 59, 61
 representative inequality, 59–61, 62, 83–84
- democracy and revolution and concept of revolution, 172–73
 indeterminacy and, 174
 new normal of crisis and catastrophes, 172
 potential of, 173
- democracy and revolution radical democracy
 anti-hegemonic and anti-populist logic, 186–89
 Indigenous and migrant struggles, 189–91
- democracy and revolution reasons
 generative nature of, 176–78
 guise of self-misunderstanding, 179–80
 historical reasons, 175
 institutional limits, 182–83
 as part of a continuum, 181–82
 permanent struggle of, 179
 philosophical reasons, 175–76
 political reasons, 175
 and prefigurative politics, 181–82
 questioning accepted practices, 178
 self-limitation, 181–82
 self-reflexivity, 181
 without metaphysical foundations, 179
- democracy as closed society picture boundaries, 31
 citizens both free and equal, 27
 constitutional versus ordinary politics, 31–32
 criticism in, 28
 defined, 25
 elections rules and procedures, 27
 focus on institutions, 28
 gatekeeping, 29
 as solution to a problem about collective action and decision, 26–27
- democracy as open society picture
 acting and living together, 32–33 change acceptance in, 38
 colonial states, 34–35
 constitutional versus ordinary politics, 35
 defined, 25
 evolving conversation and critiques in, 33–34
 ideal citizen in, 37
 importance of action in, 37–38
 lack of firm boundaries, 34
 pluralism and, 33
 role of laws and institutions in, 35–36
- democracy ‘beyond the state.’ See also norm
 contestation in global democracy
 exile criticism, 111–16
 subsections of, 2
- democracy in a provisional key aporetic nature of, 53–54, 55
 autoimmunity, 56
 Brexit example, 54–55
 challenges to, 58–62
 conflictual consensus, 58
 defined, 53
 and populism, 56–58
 as question to be pressed, 52–53, 54, 61–62
 struggles for, 55
 what is rule? question, 54
 what is the demos? question, 54
- democracy in more inclusive and just form contested compliance, 312
 unfreedom of the moderns, 312
- democratic challenge. See Democracy,
 challenges to
- democratic fragility
 and commitment to working how to proceed, 26
 overthrow of institutions, 26
 as process, 26
- democratic joining hands. See also democratic self-and-other-determination democratizing democracy, 380–81 lateral relationships count more than hierarchical ones, 377–78
 moving forward in here and now, 387–88
 multilogue, 376–77
 need for understanding field of
 democracy, 375
 new ways of democratic relations, 375
 participatory democratic countermodernity in here and now, 379–80
 relationship types, 380
 for transformative democratic integration, 3–4
 use dialogue to generate transformative cycles, 375–76
 workshop, 376
- democratic legitimacy in pluralistic spaces,
 approaches
 modernist view, 331
 pluralist view, 331
- democratic legitimacy in pluralistic spaces,
 recognition and interaction practices, 331–32

- democratic legitimacy in pluralistic spaces,
 theorizing
 reciprocal condition setting, 343–44
 relative authority test, 341–42
 several practices in concert, 344–46
- democratic legitimacy in pluralistic spaces,
 conditional authority
 background, 332–33
 in Europe, 333–36
- democratic self-and-other-determination. See also democratic joining hands
 democracy never in isolation, xx democratic reciprocity, xix–xx
 evolutionary nature of, xx
 interdependence and mutual engagement, xvii
 responsibility for own relationships, xx
- democratic struggles
 critical proximity, 141
 populist undemocratizing backlash, 156
 xenophobia, 309
- democratization
 civic action and, 48
 civil order and, 48
 Gaia democracy, 371, 372
 solidarity and, 49–50
 struggles for, 48–49, 51
- ecocycle, 165–66
- ecosocial systems
 designs of renewable, 358–59
 long history in human sciences, 357–58
 two evolutionary paths, 358
- egocycle
 background of, 166–67
 thwarting, 168–69
- elections (closed democracy), 27
- empowerment in populism
 external other role, 69
 people as community, 68
 right wing populism and nationalism, 67–68
 as thin-center ideology, 67
- environmental crisis and democracy. See also Gaia crisis
 climate crisis, 61
Cross-Border Commons, 147
 people affected, 59
 plastic waste exports, 155
 UCSD Community Stations mission, 135–43
 European Court of Justice (ECJ), 335–36
 European representative democracy
 agonistic model, 99–100
 Brexit and, 107–9
 class essentialism, 93–95
 collective subject construction, 96–97 crisis of neoliberalism, 100–2 populist movement in, 104–5
 post-democracy in, 102–4
 post-Marxist, 105–6
- exile criticism, 111–16
 analysis ‘out of place’, 112 filiative and affiliative forms of cultural connections, 114
 imperial experiences of past, 112
 jealous nature of, 113–14
 situations compel reflection, 114–15
 state of contradictions, 113
 and struggles of migrants, 189–91
 tension between concept and experience, 113
- exile criticism and political theory bounded state obsession counter to experience, 118–19
 critical disposition rather than theory of politics, 119–20
 global justice, 120
 history of, 117–18
 lack of political theorist interest in, 116–17
 versus liberal democratic theory, 122–23
 limitations of a notion state, 117–18
 question of identification to a community, 120–21
 questions asked different from cosmopolitan, 121–22, 123
 true humanism, 123–24
- fake news in representative democracies, 84–85
- feast (Gitxsan)
 dynamics, 290–91
 hosting logistics, 289
 lines of authority, 290
 planning, 289–90
 significance of, 289
 work that ceremony does, 302–3
- Federalist Papers*, 366
 15M activists, 333–34, 378
 filiative culture connections, 114 formal democratic practices, defined, 128
- freedom of the moderns
 contestation as a virtue, 326–29
 cultural validation most important practice, 329
 norm contestation standpoints, 318–19
 and sustainable normativity, 321–22
- Freud, Sigmund, 96

- Gaia crisis, 3, 59, 61. See also environmental crisis and democracy
- Gaia democracy
 democratic legitimacy in pluralist spaces, 330–46
 globalization and global governance, 307–9
 norm contestation as glue for globalized world, 310–29
Political Equator, 149
 tree canopies, 164
- Gaia democracy and environmentalism. See also more-than-human world commitment to participatory democracy, 354–55 embodied in ecological and life sciences, 354
 embodied in traditional ecological knowledge and wisdom (TEKW), 354
 Gaia hypothesis, 355
- Gaia democracy and environmentalism traditions
 gift-gratitude-reciprocity worldview, 359–60, 361–62
 reconnecting and animating, 369–73
 transition to the vicious systems, 362
- Gaia hypothesis, 355–57
- Gandhi, Mahatma, 357, 371
- gatekeeping
 boundaries and, 29
 in closed democratic picture, 29
 gift-gratitude-reciprocity worldview defined, 359–60
 four phases of, 361–62
- Gitxsan Indigenous democracy and voting, 198–202
- Gitxsan Indigenous democracy institutions, feast, 289–90
- Gitxsan Indigenous democracy lessons belonging, 296
 conviviality rather than consent, 295–96
 facticity of political community, 301 kinship as way of coming into relationship with others, 296–97 participation and citizenship, 297–98 religious law influences, 300–1 responsibility to give to society, 298–99
 work that ceremony does, 302–3
- Gitxsan Indigenous democracy practices community building, 293–94
 community importance, 285
 culture of conviviality, 291–92
 having to rebuild Indigenous law, 211–12 House importance, 288–89
 interconnected lifeways, 292–93
 kinship relations, 286–88
 Lindberg on, 211–12
 non-state society governance structure, 284–85
 outsider acceptance, 292–93
 peace agreement, 203–8
 relationship systems, 209–11
 social identity, 293
- Global Summit of Refugees, 49
- globalization
 and global governance, 307–9
 norm contestation as glue, 310–29
- Gramsci, Antonio, 93–95, 152
- great transformation
 causing sustainability crisis, 363
 enclosure of common lands, 363
 human labor movement to corporate and automated systems, 364 internet surveillance capitalism, 364 privatization of property by corporations, 363–64
 violent modernization processes, 362–63
- great-disembedding process, 157–58
- gridlock in democracy. See also democratic challenge causes, 308–9
 examples, 309
 reasons for, 307–8
- grounded normativity
 defined, 237
 in Indigenous relational networks, 239–40, 251–52
 norm contestation in global democracy, 310–29
 producing Indigenous relational networks, 241–43
 vocabulary illegible in minority rights, 224–25
- grounded relationality, 156
- Habermas, Jürgen, 95, 98–99, 100
- hegemony
 alternatives in, 96
 antagonism, 95
- Hermeneutics of the Subject, 160
- Hirschman, Albert
 background at Columbia National Planning Council, 130
 civic elasticity, 146
Getting Ahead Collectively: Grassroots Experiences in Latin America, 130

- importance of local knowledge and practices, 131–32
- intermediary organizations and social promotion, 131
- revolution rhetoric, 174
- Hobbes, Thomas, 95, 118
- Indigenous democracy
 - Canadian nation-to-nation relationship, 154
 - concept of interbeing, 158–59
 - Gitxsan, 197–211
 - Gixsan governance, 281–303
 - indigenous-other-determination, xix–xx
 - oldest form of democracy, 1–2
 - participatory nature of, 354–55
 - potlache system, 338–39
 - relational networks, 234–58
 - settler states political history of membership, 214–30
 - struggles for, 189–91
 - Trans Mountain Pipeline (TMP), 259–80
 - worldviews in traditions, 160
- Indigenous resurgence networks
 - colonial states attempts to stifle Indigenous relationships, 236–37
 - defined, 237
 - practice-based, 337–38, 345–46
 - relational, 234–58
- Indigenous resurgence networks stories
 - bus difficulties, 247–49
 - and colonial concretization, 250–51
 - community solidarity and tiny houses, 249–50
 - as generative democratic movements, 257–58
 - inclusiveness of, 252
 - place-based ethics of responsibility, 254
 - political praxis through politics from below, 253
 - salmon fish farm, 245–47
- Indigenous resurgence networks theory
 - grounded normativity, 239–40
 - grounded normativity producing, 241–43
 - politics of recognition and self-determination from below, 243–44, 253
 - as prefigurative political project, 239
 - shift from powerlessness, 240–41
- individualist worldview
 - defined, 157
 - great-disembedding process, 157–58
- inequality (representative)
 - democratic challenge, 59–61, 62
 - giving rise to crises, 3
- informal democratic practices
 - critical proximity to struggles, 141
 - US-Mexico border, 127–29
- institutional hijacking in representative democracies, 85
- institutions, democratic
 - in closed democracy, 28, 35–36
 - in closed democratic picture, 28
 - community-based democracies and populism, 77–80
 - Gitxsan feast, 289–90
 - non-state, 210, 281–303
 - overthrow of, 26
 - revolutionary limits, 182–83
- intermediary organizations, 131
- International Relations (IR) theory
 - norm's meaning-in-use, 327
 - three dimensions, 329
- interregnum, 168
- intra-action concept, 159
- Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 94
- liberal democratic theorists, 122–23
- Lincoln, Abraham, 372
- Machiavelli, Niccolò, 95, 118
- MEXUS: Geographies of Interdependence*, 147–48
- minority rights vocabulary used for Indigenous people
 - normative vocabulary illegible, 224–25
 - R v. Sparrow (Canada)*, 226–29
 - Secession Reference (Canada)*, 229–30
 - United States v Kagama*, 231
- modes of citizenship, 41
- more-than-human world. See also Gaia
 - democracy and environmentalism going outside to formulate strategies, xix
 - judgement is perspectival, xix
 - legal order flows from creation story, xvii
 - natural world determines how people live, xx
 - vastness of natural world, perspective of human world, xix
- Mutual Aid, 358
- Neighbourhood houses (NHs), 74–77
- non-state institutions
 - Gitxsan governance, 281–303
 - Rundle on, 210
- nonviolence. See also Turtle Island democracy
 - in democracy, xvii
 - MLK on, 8

- norm contestation in global democracy. See also democracy 'beyond the state'; protest agonistic, 315
 contestation as a virtue, 326–29
 contingent on local practice, 326 cultural background knowledge, 327
 cycle-grid model, 318
 defined, 313
 dual quality of norms, 313, 325–26
 freedom of the moderns, 318–19
 mapping contestations, 326 mechanisms of change according to guiding norms of global order, 322
 modern constitutionalism challenges, 310–11
 norms and societal multiplicity, 312–15
 opportunities in, 313
 practices of validation, 326
 role of fundamental norms in forefront, 310
 standpoints, 318–19
 sustainable normativity, 320–26
 tension between foundational frame and universal validity, 314–15
- ontology. See worldviews of political understanding
- Operation Lava Jato, 88–91
- Orientalism*, 111
- Our Ecological Footprint*, 370
- Overton window, 269–70
- participatory democracy, 354–55. See also community-based democracies
- place-based ethics of responsibility, 254–55
- pluralism
 democratic legitimacy, 330–46
 European Court of Justice (ECJ) over conflicting national legislation, 335–36 pluralism in open democratic picture, 33
 pluralism in representative democracy
 aggregative versus deliberative democracy, 97–98
 political parties in, 106–7
Secession Reference (Canada), 230
- Political Equator*, 149
- political history of membership categorical differences in legal vocabularies, 219
 defined, 220–24
 descriptivism, 220–21
 function of, 214
 Indigenous population struggles, 217–18
 internal perspectives, 217
- laws different in kind, 218–19
 practical reality of legal system adjustments, 222–24
 process cases, 216–17
 process of determining membership, 214–16 social actor interpretation of laws, 220
 theoretical lens, 221–22
- political history of membership in settler states
 legal vocabulary not legible, 224–25 minority rights vocabulary used for Indigenous people, 225–26
R v. Sparrow (Canada), 228–29
Secession Reference (Canada), 229–30
United States v Kagama, 231
- political theorist
 collective goodness versus fascist narrative, 122–23
 as curator for social justice, 132–33
 horizontal community engagement, 133–35
 lack of intervention in exile criticism, 116–17
 in solidarity with people struggling against, 129–35
- politics of recognition and self-determination
 from below
 Gaia democracy, 369–73
 Indigenous resurgence networks,
 243–44, 253
- populism and democracy. See also community-based democracies and populism centre-left sense of community, 70–73
 conflictual consensus viewpoint, 57–58
 levels of institutional scale, 77–80
 populism as central part of democracy
 viewpoint, 57
 populist antipluralism opposition viewpoint, 56–57
 populist idea of community, 65
 populist promise of empowerment, 66–70
 post-democracy, 102–3
 undemocratizing backlash, 156
- post-democracy
 economic transformation in, 102
 lack of popular sovereignty, 102
 populist rise in, 102–3
- post-foundationalist politics, 95–96
- post-Marxism, 105–6
- poverty trap, 166
- precipitation whiplash, 144
- protest. See also norm contestation in global
 democracy
 in closed picture democracy, 27

- conditional practices from bottom-up to upset power, 337–38
- Gaia democracy, 372
- Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism, The*, 223
- Public Scholars*, 141
- R v. Sparrow (Canada)*
 - background of legal fiction, 227–28
 - locking Indigenous people into minority status, 228
 - marshall law vocabulary, 228–29
 - wording of constitutional provision, 226–27
- reciprocal condition setting, 343–44
- Refugee Tales*, 51
- reifying standpoint, 319
- relational canopy
 - characteristics, 163–64
 - defined, 163
- relational worldview
 - concept of interbeing, 158–59
 - individuals in, 159–60
 - intra-action concept, 159
- relative authority test, 341–42
- Representation of the Intellectual*, 115
- representative democracy
 - in Brazil, 82–92
 - civic engagement, 73–77
 - in Europe, 93–109
 - major family of democracy, 2
 - political parties in, 106–7
- representative democracy challenges
 - authoritarianism, 83
 - competitive powers, 85, 96–97
 - democratic disconnection and deficit, 365–69
 - ecocentric and individualist lifeways, 169–71
 - inequalities, 59–61, 62, 83–84
 - juridical systems, 86–88
 - non-cooperation, 84–85
 - populism, 65–80
- representative democracy criticism
 - dichotomy of liberalism and colonialism, 110–11
 - exile criticism, 111–16
- resurgence (Indigenous)
 - defined, 239
 - practices, 239
- rethinking standpoints, 319
- revolution and democracy
 - concept of revolution, 172–73
 - indeterminacy and, 174
 - potential of, 173
- revolution and democracy reasons
 - anti-hegemonic and anti-populist logic, 186–89
 - generative nature of, 176–78
 - guise of self-misunderstanding, 179–80
 - historical reasons, 175
 - Indigenous and migrant struggles, 189–91
 - institutional limits, 182–83
 - as part of a continuum, 181–82
 - permanent struggle of, 179
 - philosophical reasons, 175–76
 - political reasons, 175
 - and prefigurative politics, 181–82
 - questioning accepted practices, 178
 - self-limitation, 181–82
 - self-reflexivity, 181
 - without metaphysical foundations, 179
- right wing populism and nationalism in Europe, 104
- Rights of Man, The, 365
- rigidity trap, 166
- Sand County Almanac*, 353
- scalar model, 328
- Schmit, Carl, 95, 97, 98–99
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 97
- Secession Reference (Canada)*
 - presumption of plurality, 230
 - vocabulary of democratic constitutionalism, 229–30
- settler colonialism
 - defined, 235–36
 - enclose Indigenous relationships, 236–37
- settler states Indigenous political history of membership, 214–33
- Smith, Adam, 142
- social promotion
 - defined, 131
 - to fill vacuum left by the retreat, 131
 - and importance of local knowledge and practices, 131–32
 - intentions of, 131
- solidarity
 - in democratization, 49–50
 - as respect as observance, 49
 - as respect as respectfulness, 49–50
- So-long-as decisions*, 335–36
- Spielraum*, 42
- sui generis* in Indigenous law, 217–18
- sustainable normativity
 - cycle-grid model (norm contestation), 323–25

- sustainable normativity (cont.)
 freedom of the moderns, 321–22
 recognition problem, 320
 sustainability crisis, 363
 transformative change through politics, 320
 unequal access to democratic participation, 321
- symbiosis
 animacy of, 355–57
 in ecosocial systems, 357
- tent canopies
 hegemony, 161–62
 individualist features, 161–62
 relational canopy, 163–64
 worldviews as canopies of political understanding, 161–62
- Thatcher, Margaret, 96, 270
- Thucydides, 95, 118
- Tiny House Warriors, 274–79
- Trans Mountain Pipeline (TMP) resistance movement
 history of, 267–71
 importance of Indian sovereignties, 260–61
 land/water defenders as protesters, 259–60
 resistance strategy, 271–74
 Tiny House Warriors, 274–79
- traps in human systems
 poverty, 166
 rigidity, 166
- tree canopies
 conceptualization, 156
 ecocycle, 165–66
 as varied assemblages of people and lifeways, 164
 worldviews, 157–60
- Trudeau, Justin
 government purchase of Trans mountain, 266
 leveraging reinstatement of Trans Mountain Pipeline, 268–69
 Overton window, 269–70
 support of Indigenous objections to pipelines, 263
- Trump, Donald, 149, 374
- Tsawalk*, 160
- Turtle Island democracy. See also nonviolence
 authority of modern treaties, 336–37
 conditional forms of authority, 337
 legal order from creation story, xvii lessons from the natural world, xviii
 potlache system, 338–39
 practices from bottom-up, 337–38
 several practices in concert, 345–46
- UCSD Community Stations
 civic programming content, 136–37
 defined, 129
 design, 136
 founding intention to ‘localize the global,’ 135
- UCSD Community Stations locations
 UCSD-Alacrán Community Station, 138–40
 UCSD-CASA Community Station, 137–38
- UCSD Community Stations mission
 cross-border citizenship culture, 143–44, 149–51
Cross-Border Commons, 145–46, 147
 elastic civil identity, 146–47
 environmental insecurity, 144–45
 localizing the global, 142–43
MEXUS: Geographies of Interdependence, 147–48
Political Equator, 149
 trust building and complexity management, 140–41
- UCSD-Alacrán Community Station, 138–40
 UCSD-CASA Community Station, 137–38
- unfreedom of the moderns
 overcoming dilemma by taking modern freedoms as profoundly contested, 317
 six features of, 315–16
 two forms of, 327–28
- union decline, 299–300
- United States v Kagama*, 231
- Uribe, Carlos, 133
- vicious social systems features
 democratic disconnection and deficit, 365–69
 great transformation, 362–65
- vicious social systems, transitions from other systems, 362
- violence,
 acceptance of state, 89
 colonial, 275
 cycles of, 308, 351
 epistemic, 157, 162, 167–68
 mnemonic, 175
 radical political, 150, 153–54
 revolutionary, 185–86

- Said on, 113
- settler, 119
- Visiting Economists Syndrome*, 131
- worldviews as canopies of political understanding
 - contrasts between types, 165
 - defined, 161
 - ecocycle, 165–66
 - egocycle, 166–67, 168–69
 - tent canopies, 161–62, 164
 - traps, 166–67
 - tree canopies, 164
- worldviews of political understanding,
 - defined, 157
- worldviews of political understanding, types of
 - antagonistic and hierarchical differences, 160
 - Indigenous traditions, 160
 - individualist, 157–58
 - relational, 158–60

