THE ECONOMICS OF POST-COMMUNIST TRANSITION

OLIVIER BLANCHARD

This is one of the few books to fully examine the movement in Central Europe from a centrally-planned economy to a market economy, focusing on the effects of reforms on the labor market, the contraction of activities in the old state sector, and the development of activities in the new private sector.

(Clarendon Lectures in Economics)
1997 168 pp.; 30 figures, 13 tables $25.00

THE TWISTED MUSE

Musicians and Their Music in the Third Reich

MICHAEL KATER

"Kater...has combed newspaper archives, studied economic statistics, interviewed surviving composers and meticulously correlated information from denazification proceedings. His account...is the most thorough and nuanced now available of Nazi musical alliances, allegiances and ambiguities....[B]rings us to a more complicated understanding without tolerating latent defenses of old friends or Vissi d'Arte alibis." —New York Times Book Review

1997 344 pp. $35.00

GERMANS ON WELFARE

From Weimar to Hitler

DAVID F. CREW

Adopting a "history of everyday life" perspective, Crew shows how welfare discourse and policy were translated into welfare practices by local officials and appropriated, contested, or re-negotiated by millions of welfare clients during the inter-war period.
1998 352 pp. $49.95

REFORMING SEX

The German Movement for Birth Control and Abortion Reform, 1920-1950

ATINA GROSSMANN

"Superb....Grossmann's stellar study of German reproductive politics is a model of historical scholarship, rich description, and essential analysis. It has sharp relevance for all of us who care about the contemporary struggles for human rights and women's rights worldwide." —Women's Review of Books

CULTURE AND POLITICAL CRISIS IN VIENNA

CHRISTIAN SOCIALISM IN POWER, 1897-1918

John W. Boyer

"Read until you can hear them speak': G. M. Young's famous axiom is wonderfully exemplified in this magisterial study, based so evidently on years of archival research, yet written with such fluency. . . . That Boyer's latest book will become a standard work on Viennese twentieth-century political history is inevitable." —Eda Sagarra, Austrian Studies VIII
