Newcomen Awards in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ Two Newcomen Awards in Business History are offered annually for articles published in the Business History Review. The First Prize, of $250, is awarded the article judged, according to the rules outlined below, to be the best of the year. The Special Award, of $100, is for the best article by an author who is not more than 35 years of age and who has not published a book.

¶ Prize articles are selected by a panel of judges composed of a representative of The Newcomen Society and members of the Advisory Board of the Business History Review. No member of the Advisory Board or editorial staff shall be eligible for a prize, and articles so authorized will not be considered in the judging. Authors eligible for the Special Award shall also be eligible for the First Prize, but in no event shall both prizes be awarded for the same article. The Advisory Board reserves the right to withhold the Special Award in the event that eligible articles do not, in the Board's judgment, merit prize consideration. The awards program is administered by the editorial offices of the magazine.

¶ Criteria for selection include: originality, value, breadth, and interest of contribution, quality of research materials and methods, and quality of presentation.

The most exciting economic adventure of this generation

JAPAN SURGES AHEAD The Story of an Economic Miracle

P. B. Stone

In its economic "laboratory," Japan has forged a remarkable program for prosperity — one that may make it the second richest nation in the world. In this compelling account of Japan's post-war boom, P. B. Stone probes the Japanese economy for its unique combination of foibles and assets. In fascinating detail he describes the country's magnificent civil service, stresses the importance of Japan's phenomenal growth records in shipbuilding, optical and electronic equipment, chemicals, and steel, and explores her current programs of research and development in transistors, office computers, jet aircraft, and plastic cars. Vital not only for its superb analysis of past accomplishments but also for its prognosis of what lies ahead for Japan, for Asia, and for the world. $6.95

JOHANNES HIRSCHMEIER,
S.V.D.

The Origins of Entrepreneurship in Meiji Japan

"Here is a rewarding excursion into the role and sources of human motivation and initiative during Japan's pioneer period of industrialization preceding 1895 . . . an important contribution to the solution of the fascinating puzzle of Japan's remarkable economic achievements. (Father Hirschmeier) brings to his task a fine command of Japanese language and sources. He also capitalizes upon his European-American background in making fruitful comparisons with the West . . . (and) has provided a most valuable sketch of the principal issues, much useful information, and a good basis for more definitive works in the future."

Alan H. Gleason, Pacific Affairs

The author has "done a remarkable job of examining the extensive data on the subject . . . The uniqueness of his approach and the originality of his conclusion will surely be enlightening to scholars in this field."

The Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ The Newcomen Society in North America, in cooperation with the Business History Review, announces a prize of $1,000 and scroll to be awarded in 1970 for the best book on the history of business published in the United States during the years 1967-1969.

¶ For the purposes of this award, "the history of business" will be interpreted in its broadest sense, including not only the history of firms or industries, but books tracing interactions of businessmen, analyses of business philosophy or behavior, and studies of the adjustment of businesses and businessmen to their economic, political, and social environments.

¶ Criteria for selection will include contribution to knowledge, depth of analysis, soundness of reasoning, clarity of style and organization, and general readability and format.

¶ The committee to select the recipient of the 1970 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History is composed of: Professor James P. Baughman, Editor, Business History Review, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; Mr. Stanley van den Heuvel, Trustee, The Newcomen Society in North America; and Professor Arthur M. Johnson, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, chairman.

¶ The 1970 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History will be the third in a series of triennial prizes intended to encourage the study and improve the writing of business history in the United States and Canada.

IMAGES AND REALITIES

by Richard Halloran

He writes of the inner dynamics of power in a nation of outward change; "his book makes it plain that he for one has not been baffled by 'mysterious Japan.' "*

"Excellent . . . Halloran has dissected and examined the Japanese character with scholarly sensitivity, and in language that any layman can understand and enjoy."

—Saturday Review

"A lucid, interesting and important book . . . a remarkably clear and perceptive analysis of the structure of modern Japan."—Book World

*"Halloran is a first-class reporter and . . . there is much to learn from him. He insists on the disparity of Japanese and American ways, but his book makes it plain that he for one has not been baffled by 'mysterious Japan.'"
