By A. BISKUPEK, S.V.D.

This Litany can truly be called a concise summary of all that the Church teaches about the Person and work of Christ. And in this work Father Biskupek probes the meaning of various invocations contained in the Litany, uncovering their full significance and leading the reader to a more profound knowledge of our Lord. 21s

SOUL OF CHRIST

Meditations on the Anima Christi

By J. H. COLLINS, S.J.

Dating from the first half of the fourteenth century, the Anima Christi has long been a favourite prayer of Christians everywhere. Though its authorship is obscure (it has been attributed both to St Thomas Aquinas and to Pope John XXIII), it has been especially associated with St Ignatius Loyola who places it at the beginning of his celebrated Spiritual Exercises. 18s 6d
