Social Philosophy & Policy

Editor: Ellen Frankel Paul, Social Philosophy and Policy Center, Bowling Green State University

Associate Editors: Fred Miller, Jr. and Jeffrey Paul, Social Philosophy and Policy Center

Social Philosophy & Policy is an interdisciplinary journal with an emphasis on the philosophical underpinnings of enduring social policy debates.

The semi-annual issues are thematic in format, examining a specific area of concern with contributions from scholars in philosophy, economics, political science and law. While not primarily a journal of policy prescriptions, articles typically connect theory with practice.

Papers are submitted upon invitation from the Editors and represent a broad spectrum of political and philosophical views on a given theme. The editors, with the aid of a distinguished editorial board, seek contributions from well-known scholars as well as promising younger researchers.

The 1996 issues will be 'Community, Individual and the State' and 'Scientific Innovation, Philosophy, and Public Policy'.

Subscription Information

Social Philosophy and Policy is published twice a year in Winter and Summer. Volume 13 in 1996: £54 for institutions; £21 for individuals; airmail costs £10 per year extra. ISSN 0265-0525.

"Social Philosophy & Policy is that rare journal which brings together the best in philosophy, politics, law, and economics. The distinguished author whom it publishes in its timely symposia produce works which are required reading both for specialists in these areas and for the general reader."

RICHARD EPSTEIN, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Professor Anthony O'Hear, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory. Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

¹ H. B. Acton, The Philosophy of Punishment (London: Macmillan, 1969), 192–198.

² R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 178 (October 1971), 295.

³ Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Professor O'Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Professor O'Hear at Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0AG. All other correspondence should also be addressed to the Institute.
