PURPOSE AND EDITORIAL POLICY

The International Journal of Legal Information, the official publication of the International Association of Law Libraries, is issued three times a year: Spring, Summer, Winter. It seeks to advance the exchange of legal information throughout the world. Under the direction of its international editorial board and advisors, the IJLI serves the global community of law librarians, legal scholars, and practitioners through the publication of original articles, conference papers, bibliographies, book reviews, documents concerning law and law-related information. The views expressed in such contributions are the responsibility of the individual authors and do not imply the endorsement of the International Association of Law Libraries.

MANUSCRIPT INFORMATION

Manuscripts and any material intended for inclusion in the IJLI should be addressed to the Editor, Marie-Louise H. Bernal, who may also be reached via email at mber@loc.gov. Single copy requests and current claims, should also be sent to:

International Association of Law Libraries

Professional Development Bursaries

The International Association of Law Libraries is pleased to announce the availability of financial assistance to enable law librarians who are normally unable to benefit from Association activities to attend the 20th Annual Course in International Law Librarianship to be held in Lausanne, Switzerland, from 23rd to 26th September 2001.

Benefits

IALL offers two bursaries to attend its Conference comprising the following benefits:

- The conference registration fee is waived
- A grant of up to US$1,000 to assist with accommodation and travel costs
- membership of IALL for one year (including journal) without charge

Applications

Application should normally be by letter with full contact details to the President of the Association (see below).

Please give the following information:

A full résumé / curriculum vitae including:

- Name and qualifications
- Full contact details including email if available
- Details of present job
- Present and past employers
- Membership of professional associations
- Attendance at conferences
- Your reasons for wanting to attend this conference, the expected benefits and how you intend to disseminate those benefits.
- A reference from your employer including permission to attend the conference.

Deadline

Applications must be received by 15 July 2001.

Report

Recipients will undertake to write a report for publication by IALL by the end of the year of the conference.

Selection Guidelines

- 1) Applicants do not need to be members of the Association.
- 2) Applicants should be in current employment in librarianship with significant legal context to their work. The bursaries and scholarships are not designed for students or those not currently in employment.
- 3) Preference will be given to:
  - a) applicants who demonstrate promise and are likely to make a significant contribution to the profession of law librarianship;
  - b) applicants who cannot otherwise afford to attend;
  - c) applicants who have not received an IALL bursary or scholarship before;
  - d) applicants who have not attended a conference outside their own country / region or studied or worked outside their own country before.
- 4) IALL bursaries are not open to officers or members of the Board of the Association.

Award

The President in consultation with the Board of Directors of the Association will decide on awards. The Association may make no awards, vary the amount of the awards or make additional awards within the above limit. The Association's decisions on the award of bursaries are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Please type your application or write it clearly and send it to:
