

"Labour/Le Travail has earned a well deserved reputation as one of the world's outstanding journals of social history. The breadth of its coverage, the rigor of its editorial standards, and the timeliness of its concern for major theoretical questions make this journal necessary reading for all those who are interested in the past, present and future of working people."

JOURNAL OF CANADIAN LABOUR STUDIES

Labour/Le Travail is the official publication of the Canadian Committee on Labour History. Since it began publishing in 1976, it has carried many important articles in the field of working-class history, industrial sociology, labour economics, and labour relations. Although primarily interested in a historical perspective on Canadian workers, the journal is interdisciplinary in scope. In addition to articles, the journal features documents, conference reports, an annual bibliography of materials in Canadian labour studies, review essays, and reviews. While the main focus of the journal's articles is Canadian, the review essays and reviews consider international work of interest to Canadian labour studies. Many of Labour's articles are illustrated.

Recent issues have included: B.D. Palmer, "Homage to E.P. Thompson"; Charles Tilly, "Softcore Solipsism"; Nicholas Rogers, "Plebeians and Proletarians in 18th-Century Britain"; Melvyn Dubofsky, "Old Deal, New Deal: The Evolution of the Liberal State in the Modern United States."

Guidelines for contributors

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not currently under consideration elsewhere and that the material – in substance as well as form – has not been previously published.

Two copies of the manuscript should be submitted.

Each article should be accompanied by a summary, not exceeding 100 words, outlining the principal conclusions and methods in the context of currently accepted views on the subject.

All material – including quotations and notes – must be double-spaced with generous margins. Use of dot-matrix printers is discouraged.

Notes should be numbered consecutively and placed at the end of the text.

Spelling should be consistent throughout (e.g. Labour and Labor are both acceptable, but only one of these forms should be used in an article).

Turns of phrase using masculine forms as universals are not acceptable.
