Mongolian-English Dictionary

FERDINAND D. LESSING

This new Mongolian dictionary, considerably larger than any previously published, will undoubtedly become the standard work. It contains English definitions of the words found in Mongolian literature from 1240 to the present day, including scientific, technical and political terms and modern colloquialisms. There are examples of usage for most of its 60,000 entries, a Cyrillic index, an index of ambiguous transliterations, and a special supplement of Buddhist terms. 1236 pages. University of California Press
