

Editor's Note

Because of the pressure of other obligations, Professor Forest Hill of the University of Texas has asked to be relieved from the editorship of the Book Review section of this Journal.

Professor Rondo Cameron, Director of the Graduate Program in Economic History at the University of Wisconsin, has agreed to accept the responsibility. The first section of book reviews to be organized and collected by Professor Cameron will be that contained in the September 1968, issue (Volume XXVIII, No. 3).

We take this opportunity to express our thanks to Professor Hill for his services to the Journal and to the Association in the past.
