

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association (based in the UK) has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the history, civilizations, languages, art, material culture and legacy of ancient Greece and Rome and the broader ancient Mediterranean. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and cooperation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports Classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference and sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

Classical Association members benefit from our members-only programme of events, two issues of Omnibus magazine each year, e-news and member updates, and access to the Combined Library of the Institute of Classical Studies and the Hellenic and Roman Societies in London. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals, The Classical Quarterly, The Classical Review and Greece & Rome. The Journal of Classics Teaching is freely available online.

For more information about The Classical Association please visit the Association's website: <https://classicalassociation.org/> or contact the office at The Classical Association, Cardinal Point, Park Road, Rickmansworth, WD3 1RE, UK tel. +44 (0)7926 632598, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org.

THE CLASSICAL QUARTERLY

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history and philosophy. Two substantial issues of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, normally in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC™-certified paper and cover board.
