

Now available in paperback

Reproduced from The Collections of the Library of Congress

Public Schools in Hard Times

The Great Depression and Recent Years

David Tyack, Robert Lowe, and Elisabeth Hansot

“A skillful, eloquent, and coherent picture, not only of how American education weathered the Great Depression, but of what public schools were like in the decades before the reforms of the postwar years.”

— Alan Brinkley,
Harvard Educational Review
$8.95 paper

Wally's Stories

Conversations in the Kindergarten

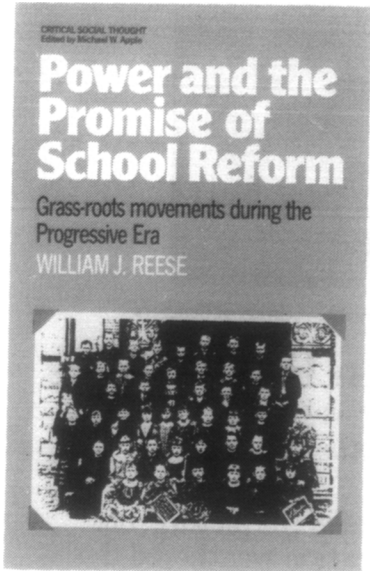

Vivian Paley

“In a book exceptionally modest in manner and unusually substantial in matter, Mrs. Paley has given a vivid and credible picture of how five-year-olds think.”

— D.J. Enright,
Times Literary Supplement
$7.95 paper

Harvard University Press

79 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

Critical Social Thought Series
Power and the Promise of School Reform
Grass-roots Movements During the Progressive Era

William J. Reese
"By bringing to life those who dissented in the Progressive era, Reese's timely book will enrich policy debate as well as the historiography of Progressive educational reform."

— From the Foreword by
Carl F. Kaestle

Routledge & Kegan Paul
November 1986
0-7100-9952-5 $39.95/cloth
0-7102-0767-0 $14.95/paper

The Struggle for the American Curriculum
1893-1958

Herbert M. Kliebard
"...one of the best histories of the curriculum movement I have ever read. It is a brilliant and stunning achievement and should be read by every student of education in this country."

— Henry A. Giroux,
Miami University

Routledge & Kegan Paul
May 1986
0-7102-0055-2 $24.95/cloth

Language, Structure and Reproduction

An Introduction to the Sociology of Basil Bernstein

Paul Atkinson
Paul Atkinson portrays Bernstein as a sociologist in the Durkheimian tradition who is best understood as a structuralist whose theory of "codes" is a representation of symbolic forms of power and the social divisions of labor.

Methuen
February 1986
0-416-35600-1 $35.00/cloth
0-416-35610-9 $13.95/paper

 Methuen
29 WEST 35th STREET, NEW YORK, NY 10001

*From Texas . . .
A much-needed look at the history of Mexican Americans and educational reform*

"LET ALL OF THEM TAKE HEED"

Mexican Americans and the Campaign for Educational Equality in Texas, 1910-1981

By Guadalupe San Miguel, Jr.

A significant and timely look at how and why educational policies were developed in this century to effectively marginalize Hispanic Americans. Shows how the Mexican American community became an active participant in the struggle for educational reform, looking at such organizations as LULAC, the American G.I. Forum, MALDEF, and important and committed individuals.

The author's use of primary sources, including interviews with actual participants in the lengthy struggle, taps a wealth of new information about Chicano education. $25.00 hardcover

Please add $2 shipping on all mail orders.

University of Texas Press
BOX 7819 AUSTIN, TEXAS 78713 (512) 471-4032

"His study is...enthraling."

--John Bushnell, Northwestern University

RUSSIAN PEASANT SCHOOLS

Officialdom, Village Culture, and Popular Pedagogy, 1861-1914

BEN EKLOF

"Maintaining a judicious balance between views of education as a 'modernizing force' and a means of social control, Eklof is concerned above all with what primary education meant to the peasants themselves." --Allan Wildman, Ohio State University

"A highly original exploration of primary education in the Russian provinces during the last decades of the Old Regime."

--Daniel T. Orlovsky, Southern Methodist University

$45.00

At bookstores or call toll-free 800-822-6657. Visa and MasterCard only.

University of California Press Berkeley 94720

Educational Studies

A JOURNAL IN THE FOUNDATIONS OF EDUCATION
Since 1970, Educational Studies has reviewed almost 3,000 books, more than any other educational journal in the same time period.

Educational Studies publishes critical reviews and articles in the foundations of education:

- History of Education
- Philosophy of Education
- Comparative and International Education
- Education and the Social Sciences
- Educational Policy Studies
- Educational Issues

Educational Studies is a journal of the American Educational Studies Association, edited by Wayne Urban,
Georgia State University.

Subscription rates for Educational Studies are $15 annually for individuals, $25 for institutions or libraries.
For subscription information, write Robert R. Sherman,
Managing Editor, Norman Hall, University of Florida,
Gainesville, Florida 32611.

Lucy Sprague Mitchell

The Making of a Modern Woman

Joyce Antler

A fascinating biography of Lucy Sprague Mitchell, founder of the Bank Street College of Education.

"The story of Mitchell's life is part of the history of the U.S. and part of the history of childhood education. This book is not only a scholarly study but also an absorbing reading experience."
—Jessie Bernard $29.95

Now available in paperback

The World of the Yeshiva

An Intimate Portrait of Orthodox Jewry
William B. Helmreich

In the advanced yeshiva, adult males spend long periods of time — sometimes their entire lives — studying interpretive writings on Jewish theology, totally cut off from the mainstream of American life. In this book the first secular scholar to penetrate the closed world of the yeshiva describes the daily life, inhabitants, curriculum, and goals of this unique educational and religious society.

"A wonderful book." —Jacob Neusner,
Religious Studies $14.95

Yale University Press
Dept. 388
92A Yale Station
New Haven, CT 06520

Now available in paperback

In the Company of Educated Women

A History of Women and Higher Education in America

Barbara Miller Solomon

This book, the first comprehensive history of women in American higher education in over fifty years, "will be invaluable to social historians or anyone interested in the education of women."

—Sue Beckwith, New Directions for Women

"This is a work reflecting sensitive conceptualization and many years of devoted, painstaking research."
—Geraldine Joncich Clifford, History of Education Quarterly $10.95

Early Education and Psychological Development

Barbara Biber; foreword by Edward Zigler

"No other volume in the literature of early education brings together the reflections of an outstanding leader as they have developed over a period that is almost equivalent to the history of the field. . . . A richly detailed and intimate picture of the construction of a knowledge base for the education of young children." —Millie Almy, American Journal of Education $10.95

Keeping Track

How Schools Structure Inequality

Jeannie Oakes; foreword by John Goodlad

This provocative study of tracking and its effects on class and racial inequality in American society was selected as one of the ten "MUST READ" books of 1985 by the American School Board Journal.

"Oakes's new book arrives just in time to let us know what tracking has actually accomplished in American education and what its impact has been on students and society." —Deborah Meier, The Nation $8.95

History of Education Society Prizes

The History of Education Society Award

Awarded biennially to the best essay in the history of education published in any journal over the previous two years.

- 1978—David Tyack (Stanford University), “Ways of Seeing: An Essay on the History of Compulsory Schooling,” Harvard Educational Review 46 (Aug. 1976): 355-89.
- 1980—Anne Firor Scott (Duke University), “The Ever Widening Circle: The Diffusion of Feminist Values from the Troy Female Seminary, 1822-1872,” History of Education Quarterly 19 (Spring 1979): 3-25.
- 1982—Douglas Sloan (Teachers College, Columbia University), “Science in New York City, 1867-1907,” Isis 71 (Mar. 1980): 35-76.
- 1984—Sheldon Rothblatt (University of California, Berkeley), “Failure in Early Nineteenth-Century Oxford and Cambridge,” History of Education (U.K.) 11 (Mar. 1982): 1-21.
- 1986—Kathleen C. Berkeley (University of North Carolina at Wilmington), “‘The Ladies Want to Bring About Reform in the Public Schools’: Public Education and Women’s Rights in the Post-Civil War South,” History of Education Quarterly 24 (Spring 1984): 45-58.

The Henry Barnard Prize

Awarded biennially to the best essay in history of education written by a graduate student. No award was made in 1985.

- 1977—David Hogan (University of Illinois; now University of Pennsylvania), “Education and the Making of the Chicago Working Class, 1880-1930.”
- 1979—William J. Reese (University of Wisconsin; now Indiana University), “Partisans of the Proletariat: The Socialist Working Class and Milwaukee Schools, 1890-1920”
- 1981—Barry H. Bergen (University of Pennsylvania; now University of North Carolina at Wilmington), “Only a School Master: Gender, Class, and the Effort to Professionalize Elementary School Teaching in England, 1870 to 1910”
- 1983—Jeffrey Mirel (University of Michigan; now Northern Illinois University), “The Politics of Educational Retrenchment in Detroit, 1929-1935”

History of Education Quarterly

Subscription rates (per calendar year only):

	US	Non-US
Individual* (Non-Student)	$25	$27
Student*	$15	$17
Institutions	$47	$50

*includes membership in History of Education Society

Please address all subscription orders to:

HISTORY OF EDUCATION QUARTERLY
School of Education
Indiana University
Bloomington, IN 47405

Payment must be made in US dollars.
