NEW THEATRE QUARTERLY

New Theatre Quarterly provides a vital international forum where theatrical scholarship and practice can meet and where prevailing dramatic assumptions can be subjected to vigorous critical questioning. It shows that theatre history has a contemporary relevance, that theatre studies need a methodology and that theatre criticism needs a language. The journal publishes news, analysis and debate within the field of theatre studies.

...is important reading for:

- actors
- playwrights
- critics
- directors

- theatre-goers worldwide who need to keep in touch with the affairs of world drama

- national and regional arts authorities

- arts administrators

- teachers and students in schools and colleges

- academics with an interest in theatre studies

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR THEATRE RESEARCH

The American Society for Theatre Research (ASTR) was founded in 1956 to encourage theatre scholarship in the United States and to provide a link to similar research-oriented organizations, such as the International Federation for Theatre Research/La Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale (IFTR/FIRT). ASTR was incorporated under the laws of the state of New Jersey as a nonprofit corporation in 1967, and is the only theatre organization in the United States formally affiliated with both the American Council of Learned Societies and with the IFTR/FIRT. The ASTR Annual Meeting occurs in the fall of each year.

Theatre Survey, the official journal of ASTR, is published biannually in May and November, and is one of the benefits of membership in the Society. ASTR annual dues are $60.00 for North American regular members, $35.00 for North American students, $65.00 for non-North American regular members, $40.00 for non-North American students, $40.00 for North American retirees, and $45.00 for non-North American retirees. Inquiries about ASTR, including membership, should be directed to:
