Law and History Review (ISSN 0738-2480) is published twice a year, in spring and fall, by the University of Illinois Press for the American Society for Legal History. The purpose of the Review is to further research and writing in the fields of the social history of law and the history of legal ideas and institutions.

The Review is sent to all members of the American Society for Legal History, the professional association in the United States that promotes study, research, and publication in the history of law and legal institutions. In addition to the Review, members receive the Society's newsletter and notices of conferences on legal history, including the Society's annual meeting. Members may elect to receive only the Review.

Membership fees: Institutions, $45.00 ($48.00 foreign); individuals, $25.00 ($28.00 foreign); sustaining members, $50.00; sponsors, $100.00; students, $10.00. Single copies, $23.00.

Address all business inquiries (subscriptions, membership applications, advertisements, and change-of-address notices) to the Journals Department, University of Illinois Press, 54 E. Gregory Drive, Champaign, IL 61820.

Address manuscript submissions to Michael Hoeflich, College of Law, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY 13244. Instructions for preparation of manuscripts are printed on the inside back cover of this issue.

Postmaster: Send change-of-address notices to University of Illinois Press, 54 E. Gregory Drive, Champaign, IL 61820.
