TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Three copies of any article or note should be submitted, and at least one copy must be in a form suitable for sending to the printer. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Library of Congress transliteration should be used. Articles should contain a final section in which the author sets out his main conclusions in a way which will be intelligible to the nonspecialist reader. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages, except where especially justified, e.g., by extensive documentation, tables, or charts. Manuscripts will not be returned unless specifically requested. The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.
