The Journal of Economic History

Published for the Economic History Association

Co-Editors

Price V. Fishback, University of Arizona, USA

Jean-Laurent Rosenthal, California Institute of Technology, USA

The Journal of Economic History is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of history and economics, and is of interest not only to economic historians but to social and demographic historians, as well as economists in general. The journal has broad coverage, in terms of both method and geographic scope. Topics include money and banking, trade, manufacturing, technology, transportation, industrial organisation, labour, agriculture, servitude, demography, education, and the role of government and regulation. In addition, an extensive review section includes the latest books in economic history and related fields.
