ARCHAEOLOGICAL REPORTS FOR 1974-75

CONTENTS

CONTENTS

These Archaeological Reports are published by the Hellenic Society and the British School at Athens for their subscribers. They are also offered for sale to the public (obtainable from The Editor [Reports], The Hellenic Society, 31-34, Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP). 'Archaeology in Greece' is an annual feature, and the periodic reports on work in other parts of the Greek world include South Italy and Sicily, Western Asia Minor, Central Italy and Etruria, the Black Sea, etc.: unfortunately the report on 'Archaeology in Cyprus' planned for this year became a victim of the troubles in that island, and has been held over until the next issue. In addition there are regular bulletins illustrating acquisitions by museums in Great Britain.

This year the Reports have been produced by the 'Uneoprint' process, as an attempt to conserve the resources of the School and the Society. This is intended as an experiment, and the Editorial Committee would welcome comments or criticisms on any aspect of the result: these should be sent in the first instance to the Editor, Dr A. J. N. W. Prag, The Manchester Museum, The University, Manchester, M13 9PL.

The picture on the cover is of a bronze lion, of sixth-century Corinthian workmanship, found in the Greek excavations at Dodona: see p. 20.
