

NEWS

✎ The German Script Seminar at the Moravian Archives will be held June 13 to 24, 1983. The Seminar consists of intensive training in reading German Script as used in Germany and in German areas of America. The cost is $200 for tuition and materials. For further information, contact Vernon H. Nelson, Archivist, Moravian Archives, 41 West Locust St., Bethlehem, Pennsylvania 18018. (215) 866-3255.

✎ The Tenth Annual Saint Louis Conference on Manuscript Studies will be held at St. Louis University October 14, 15, 1983. An invitation is extended for papers dealing with one of the four following aspects of the manuscript: codicology, illumination, paleography, and texts. For further information, please write Conference Committee, Vatican Film Library, Pius XII Memorial Library, 3655 West Pine, St. Louis, Missouri, 63108.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

ROBIN LENMAN, lecturer in history at the University of Warwick (Covenry CV4 7AL, England), has published articles on the cultural history of Imperial Germany, and on the early history of the Nazi Party. His current research is on the relationship between culture and society in Central Europe at the turn of the century.

PAUL MADDEN, associate professor of history at Hardin-Simmons University (Abilene, Texas 79698) is the author of "Generational Aspects of German National Socialism, 1919-1933," Social Science Quarterly 63 (September 1982): 445-62. He is currently studying the social composition of the Nazi Party membership.

LARRY PETERSON received a Ph.D. from Columbia University, with a dissertation on the labor union policies of the KPD in the Weimar Republic, and has written articles on the German workers' movement and the comparative history of labor unionism. He works for a publishing company and lives in New York (73 Seaman Avenue, no. 5D, New York, New York 10034). He is currently doing research on the KPD and the international labor union and communist movements from 1918 to 1936.