This project is based on the extensive holdings of Radio Free Europe in Munich and the Polish Library POSK in London. About twenty other libraries in the USA, England, France and Italy supplied many lacking issues. A unique primary source materials representing a very wide range of opposition and dissident periodicals up to 1988, the year in which many oppositional publications started to appear more or less openly.

Titles include not only complete serials of known national periodicals such as Tygodnik Mazowsze and KOS, but also many clandestine publications of all kinds: bulletins and leaflets originating from factory, local, and regional Solidarność branches, academic and student circles, peasant organizations, political groupings, and religious and cultural groups.
