Make plans to attend the 2010 APSA Annual Meeting!

2010 APSA Annual Meeting & Exhibition

Washington, DC, September 2-5, 2010

APSA and 2010 Program Chairs Lisa Martin (University of Wisconsin) and Andrea Campbell (MIT) encourage you to attend the 2010 APSA Annual Meeting in Washington DC. Plans for the conference are underway!

Martin and Campbell are organizing the conference on the theme "The Politics of Hard Times: Citizens, Nations, and the International System under Economic Stress." Periodically the world economy experiences "hard times," such as in the last quarter of the 19th century, the Great Depression, and the ups and downs of the 1970-1980s oil crises and inflations. It is commonly believed that during these periods, governments become more interventionist; populism, fascism, or communism develop and prosper; democracies are prone to give way to authoritarianism; international conflict increases; the international economic system is reconfigured; and international institutions fail or are refashioned. What does political science have to say about these claims?

Martin and Campbell hope to see this question and others on the theme addressed by a wide range of panels, encompassing diverse theoretical, practical, and methodological perspectives at the 2010 APSA Annual Meeting. For the most up-to-date information on the 2010 Annual Meeting, visit www.apsanet.org/annualmeeting/. Registration and housing open in March.

See you in Washington, D.C.!

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.
