Language and Decadence in the Victorian Fin de Siècle

Linda Dowling

"Linda Dowling has taken an unusual but stimulating approach to the whole subject of Decadence in English literature. She succeeds in divorcing Decadence from its sensational connotations, and identifies the term instead with a coherent attitude toward language." —John R. Reed, Nineteenth Century-Literature Paper:$12.95 ISBN 0-691-01472-8

The Old Enemy Satan and the Combat Myth

Neil Forsyth

"... (a) learned ... but also robust book. ... Forsyth is much at home amid the heroics, graphic laments and winged enormities and leviathans of the Sumerian, Hittite and Canaanite epic fables. ... He sees the narrative links between Marduk and Zeus, between the death-king Mor and the classical underworld. At the close of the study, the chapters on Augustine glow with intelligence and sympathy."

—George Steiner, The Times Literary Supplement
Paper:$16.95 ISBN 0-691-01474-4

Samuel Johnson and the Impact of Print

Alvin Kernan

"Kernan picks up the image of Johnson where recent biographers left off. Samuel Johnson, he sums up, was 'skeptical, deeply troubled in mind, mad at times, neurotic nearly always, radically doubtful of himself and of the social values he at the same time so stoutly defended.' To that 'existential Johnson,' Kernan adds an image of Johnson as a model of success in the emergent print culture. This makes for fascinating reading."

PMLA (ISSN 0030-8129) is published six times a year, in January, March, May, September, October, and November, by the Modern Language Association of America. Membership is open to those persons who are professionally interested in the modern languages and literatures. Annual dues, which include subscription to PMLA, are based on members' incomes and are graduated as follows: student members (four years maximum), $10; new regular members (first year), $25; regular members (income under $12,000), $10; regular members (income $12,000-$15,000), $35; regular members (income $15,000-$20,000), $45; regular members (income $20,000-$25,000), $50; regular members (income $25,000-$30,000), $55; regular members (income $30,000-$35,000), $60; regular members (income $35,000-$40,000), $65; regular members (income $40,000-$45,000), $70; regular members (income $45,000-$50,000), $75; regular members (income $50,000-$55,000), $80; regular members (income $55,000-$60,000), $85; regular members (income $60,000-$65,000), $90; regular members (income $65,000-$70,000), $95; regular members (income $70,000-$75,000), $100; regular members (income $75,000 and above), $105; joint members (two individuals sharing the same household, who receive one subscription to PMLA but two copies of all other publications), add $20 to dues category of higher-income member; foreign members, same as regular members (ascertain dues category based on American dollar equivalent). Membership applications are available on request.

The subscription price of PMLA for libraries and other institutions is $88. A subscription including a bound volume at the end of the year is $203, domestic and foreign. Agents deduct 4% as their fee. Single copies of the January, March, May, and October issues may be obtained for $7.50 each; the November (Program) issue for $20; the September (Directory) issue for $35.

Issues for the current year are available from the MLA Member and Customer Services Office. Claims for undelivered issues will be honored if they are received within one year of the publication date; thereafter the single issue price will be charged.

For information about the availability of back issues, inquire of Kraus Reprint Co., Millwood, NY 10546; (914) 762-2200. Early and current volumes may be obtained on microfilm from University Microfilms, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. Purchase of current volumes on film is restricted to subscribers of the journal.
