MUSLIM POLITICS

Dale F. Eickelman and James Piscatori

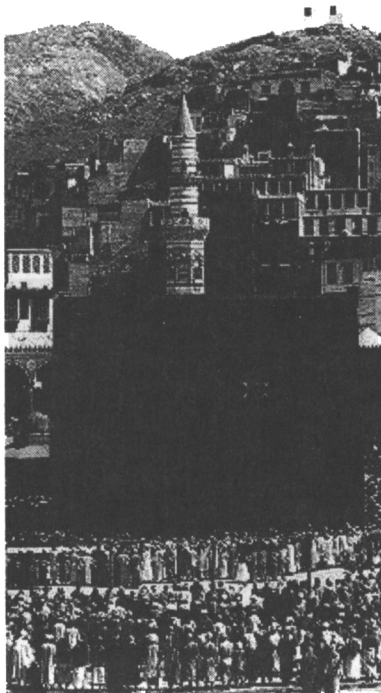

In an attempt to demystify "Muslim politics" for a wide audience, Dale Eickelman and James Piscatori explore how the politics of Islam play out in the daily lives of Muslims throughout the world. The authors probe the diversity of the contemporary Islamic experience, suggesting general trends and challenging popular Western notions of Islam as a monolithic movement. In so doing, they clarify concepts such as tradition, authority, ethnicity, protest, and symbolic space, notions that are crucial to an in-depth understanding of ongoing political events.

Muslim Politics poses questions about ideological politics in a variety of transnational and regional settings throughout the Muslim world.

"This is an impressive, richly documented study. . . . The authors take a refreshingly different approach to their subject by establishing the facts and building their interpretations from the ground up."—L. Carl Brown

THE HAJJ

The Muslim Pilgrimage to Mecca
and the Holy Places

F. E. Peters

Whatever its outcome—spiritual enrichment, cultural exchange, financial gain or ruin—the road to Mecca has long been an exhilarating human adventure. By collecting the firsthand accounts of these travelers and shaping their experiences into a richly detailed narrative, F. E. Peters here provides an unparalleled literary history of the central ritual of Islam from its remote pre-Islamic origins to the end of the Hashimite Kingdom of the Hijaz.

"Peters's The Hajj provides a clear and accurate picture of the organization of [Muslim] rituals. His book is . . . sufficiently comprehensive to replace older accounts of the Hajj."

Slaves into Workers

Emancipation and Labor in Colonial Sudan
BY AHMAD ALAWAD SIKAINGA

When the British took over the Sudan in 1898, they officially emancipated the slaves, yet found it impossible to replace their labor in the economy. This pathfinding study explores the process of emancipation and the development of wage labor in the Sudan under British colonial rule. Sikainga's investigation sheds new light on the legacy of slavery and the status of former slaves and their descendants and reveals how that legacy underlies the current ethnic and regional conflicts in the Sudan.

The Game of Forgetting

BY MOHAMED BERRADA
TRANSLATED FROM THE ARABIC BY ISSA BOULLATA

On the surface of this novel, various members of a Moroccan family recount their versions of the family's experiences under the French Protectorate and since Independence. On a deeper level, the book deals with human memory and how it forms one's experience of the world. Called the first postmodern novel in Arabic, the story is written in such a captivating style that it has become a bestseller in the Arab world.

A Glimpse into Iran

THE IRANIANS

PERSIA, ISLAM, AND THE SOUL OF A NATION

SANDRA MACKEY

A defining portrait of a troubled nation, The Iranians provides understanding of Iranian culture, history, and politics. Combining impeccable scholarship with human insight, Mackey—the acclaimed author of The Saudis—explores Iran in the context of its old and complex culture and examines the relationship between its two warring identities—one evolving from the values, social organization, and arts of ancient Persia, the other from Islam.

“Sandra Mackey has give us a truly impressive look into a country and a society few Americans understand. Iran will be a major concern to U.S. foreign policy managers for years to come. If they read this book they will be far better prepared to deal with this major challenge to our national security.”
