

Many of the early volumes of Architectural History are now out of print but most volumes from Volume 10 onwards are available. Back numbers of Volume 27 (Design and Practice in British Architecture: studies in architectural history presented to Howard Colvin) are available through the Society only to members.

Monographs 1. Modern Houses in Britain 1919–1939 is now out of print. 2. Architectural Drawings from Lowther Castle, Westmorland, and 3. Michael Searles: A Georgian Architect and Surveyor are in print.

Details of prices and postage costs are available on application to Mr Simon P. Oakes, Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, CB2 3HU.

An index to the contents of volumes 1–25 was published in 1983. Contents of the most recent volumes are as follows:

The Editor welcomes contributions on all aspects and periods of the history of architecture. Proposals should in the first instance be e-mailed to her at loachj@cf.ac.uk. Papers (2 copies) should be sent to Dr Judi Loach, Welsh School of Architecture, Bute Building, King Edward VII Avenue, Cardiff, Wales, CF10 3NB. It is recommended that illustrations should be sent in the first instance as photocopies. Notes on the Society's preferred methods of presentation are available from the Editor on request.

Those sending papers which they wish to be returned are requested to enclose a self-addressed envelope with sufficient stamps to cover return postage or, in the case of overseas contributors, international postage coupons.
