United Nations Yearbook Collection

The United Nations Yearbook has been the primary reference work on the Organization since 1946. For the first time, this valuable collection of more than fifty years worth of Yearbooks is available on CD-ROM.

Key Features:

- ◆ Includes every volume published (1946-1999) - a total of 53 volumes (59,472 pages) on just two CD-ROMs
- ◆ The Collection can be searched across all available volumes using index search or within any particular yearbook using full text search
- ◆ All volumes presented in this Collection are in Portable Document Format (PDF) and are identical to those in print format
- ◆ The Collection will be updated annually

The Yearbook is an indispensable reference tool for anyone seeking information on the UN system and its related organizations.

Symposium: The ILC's State Responsibility Articles

Edited by Daniel Bodansky and John R. Crook

After years of work and controversy, the International Law Commission has completed its articles on state responsibility, a fundamental concept of international law. The contributors to this symposium probe the basic premises of the Commission's work, examine central issues of invocation, countermeasures, and remedies, and weigh the authority and future relevance of the articles.

Introduction and Overview	Daniel Bodansky and John R. Crook	773
The ILC and State Responsibility	Robert Rosenstock	792
Invoking State Responsibility in the Twenty-first Century	Edith Brown Weiss	798

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 "to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice." Society membership is open to all persons of any nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Dues are: regular, $150; special category, $100; new professional, $75; retired, $100; student, $25. Sustaining Memberships—contributing ($250) and patrons ($10,000)—are also available. Corporations may join ASIL as institutional members ($2,000). The Society is incorporated by Act of Congress approved September 20, 1950 (64 Stat. 869).
