The Middle East Studies Association of North America is proud to announce that the 1982 Directory of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs and Courses in Middle East Studies in the United States, Canada, and Abroad is now available.

The Directory is the most comprehensive collection of information on institutions, courses and faculty members in Middle East Studies in all parts of the world. Containing 209 entries, the Directory is divided into three major sections: United States, Canada and Abroad. Within these sections, the institutions have been listed alphabetically for easy reference.

In addition, two appendixes increase the usefulness of this volume by 1) listing all faculty and staff members alphabetically, by name, and 2) alphabetically listing all institutions in the United States, by state; in Canada, by province; and Abroad, by country.

The Directory sells for $5 to MESA members; $10 to nonmembers. Copies may be ordered from the MESA Secretariat, Department of Oriental Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721. PAYMENT, IN U.S. CURRENCY, MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER.

Contemporary Issues in the Middle East

KUWAIT: Social Change in Historical Perspective

Jacqueline S. Ismael

"Tightly written and challenging."—Library Journal

This first book-length analysis of Kuwait spans 300 years of Kuwaiti history, charting the development of the country from a tribal colony to its current status as a super-affluent, oil-rich center of world trade and finance.

Middle Eastern Studies from Princeton

Children of Abraham Judaism, Christianity, Islam F.E. Peters

"A masterly narrative. . . . The author achieves his stated purpose of underlining both the parallels and the differences between Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and connects the three religions to a common spiritual and intellectual environment."

—Gerhard Bowering, University of Pennsylvania.

F.E. Peters shows that the way Jews, Christians, and Muslims worked out their beliefs and practices from the 6th century B.C. to the period in the Middle Ages when the three religions approached their present form, had important political and sociological as well as religious consequences.

Studies in the Arts at Sinai

Kurt Weitzmann

The pioneering work of an eminent art historian, these essays were published to reveal the discovery of many of the hitherto unknown Mt. Sinai icons and to assign them their correct positions in the art of the Eastern Mediterranean. These previously uncollected essays describe the results of the five expeditions to St. Catherine and relate them to important themes in Byzantine art.

Iran Between Two Revolutions

Ervand Abrahamian

Ervand Abrahamian discusses Iranian society and politics during the period between the Constitutional Revolution of 1905-1909 and the Islamic Revolution of 1977-1979. He focuses on the class and ethnic roots of the major radical movements in the modern era, particularly the constitutional movement of the 1900s, the communist Tudeh party of the 1940s, the nationalist struggle of the early 1950s, and the Islamic upsurge of the 1970s.
