INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

AMERICAN ANTIQUITY is concerned primarily with archaeological matter, but articles dealing with related fields may be accepted providing that their connection with the archaeological field is clear. Manuscripts must be typewritten on standard 8½×11 paper, on one side only, double spaced. Articles should not exceed a length of 7500 words without subsidy by the author.

Bibliographies must follow a standard form; citations from journals should be given as follows:

JENKS, ALBERT E. AND LLOYD A. WILFORD.

1938. "The Sauk Valley Skeleton." Bulletin of the Texas Archeological and Paleontological Society, Vol. 10;

citations of separate books or reports:

JENKS, ALBERT E.

1936. Pleistocene Man in Minnesota. University of Minnesota Press.

Illustrations over and above one page of half tones or the equivalent in line cuts must be paid for by the author. Photographs for reproduction should be on glossy paper, unmounted, and of a size suitable for reduction to 4½×7 inches, or a portion thereof, making due allowance for captions. Line drawings should be in India ink on a smooth, hard-surfaced paper, with figure numbers written lightly in pencil on the margin or back.

Reprints (without covers) will be supplied at the following prices:
