SUMMA OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

by

Louis of Granada, O.P.

This is the best synthesis of the spiritual doctrine of Fray Louis of Granada that has ever been compiled. It is not a mere collection or anthology, but a carefully arranged grouping of passages selected from the complete works of Granada.

The chapters have been arranged in the order of the questions of the Summa Theologica of St Thomas Aquinas, so that the present compilation enjoys the greatest theological unity. Moreover, it serves as a practical and inspiring exposition of the theological doctrine of the Angelic Doctor.

The fact that Fray Louis of Granada was above all a theologian for the laity is perhaps nowhere more evident than in the present compilation. Here is a spiritual theology that is within the comprehension of all, for Granada treats of even the most profound truths of the spiritual life with a simplicity and an insight that are characteristic of those souls who have experienced these truths vitally.

The Summa of the Christian Life is meant to be a compendium or guide for the formation of the perfect Christian. The theme of this work is the same as that of all the spiritual writings of Fray Louis: that the true Christian lives in and for Christ. To be a genuine Christian it does not suffice to profess the faith passively; it is not enough to believe dogmas: one must also practise the virtues.

Vol. I, 32s.; Vol. II, 40s.; Vol. III, 38s.
