

"The Challenge of American Democracy

is a first class piece of writing . . . the book is political-social-intellectual history with a strong focus on the history of democracy in America."
Gerald Wheeler, California State University at San Jose

The Challenge of American Democracy
A Concise History of Social Thought and Political Action
by Arthur Ekirch, Jr., Chairman,
Department of History, SUNY, Albany

A new, selective and interpretive survey of United States history strongly emphasizing political and intellectual history. Throughout, social thought or the history of ideas is interwoven with a thorough account of actual American political development. It pays particular attention to the ideas of Roger Williams, Thomas Hooker, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Alexis de Tocqueville, Frederick Grimke, Social Darwinism, and Pragmatism.

The democratic tradition is its central theme as the author critically analyzes American democracy from its colonial origins to the Cold War in terms of the interplay of theory and practice. Focus is placed on post Civil War topics:

- Democracy's dilemma in wartime
- Democracy's failure to apply its ideals to ethnic minorities
- A reassessment of the Eisenhower-Kennedy years
- A lucid discussion of the Progressive Period

A core text for one semester surveys, American studies, and Social-Intellectual History courses. Extensive annotated bibliography. Spring 1973. 350 pages. 6 x 9. Paperbound.

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

This Association was founded in 1955 to promote the study of the United States within the United Kingdom. It welcomes applications for membership from people interested in the history, society, government and politics, economics, geography, literature and thought of the United States. It publishes a Newsletter twice yearly, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning current subscription rates and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Charlotte Erickson, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych, London, WC2A 2AE.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester M13 9PL, England.
2. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Notes intended for the Editor or printer should be on a separate sheet.
8. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
9. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
10. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be ordered according to the scale of charges.
11. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
12. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the U.S.A.
