

WINTER, 1983.

Volume 8, No. 3 $4.00

REGISTERED BY AUSTRALIA POST
PUBLICATION No. VAW 4651

Emergent Perspectives
for Child Care

New Financial Reporting System

Preventive Home
Visiting

Parental Survival
and the Hyperactive Child

---

IN THIS ISSUE

---

Australian Child and Family Welfare
(QUARTERLY)

EDITORIAL

Margarita Frederico

2

EMERGENT PERSPECTIVES IN CHILD CARE

Frank Ainsworth

In this paper the author takes an historical and comparative perspective in relation to child welfare services, and discusses challenges for the future.

3

NEW FINANCIAL REPORTING SYSTEM – PART II

Graham Withers

In the second part of two articles on programs for developing a financial reporting system for children in care, the author presents funding proposals to allow for comparisons of funding and costs in other welfare programs.

9

PREVENTIVE HOME VISITING

Joy Rainey and Greg Murphy

The authors evaluated the effects of a home visiting program for first time mothers. In this paper they describe the program, present the results and discuss issues arising from the program.

13

PARENTAL SURVIVAL & THE HYPERACTIVE CHILD

Mary Reistroffer and Helen Zuber McVey

The authors offer a guide to parents of the hyperactive child. In Part 1, they focus on the pre-school age child.

19

CASE NOTES

Extracts from Report of the Adoption Review Committee.

Notes on Children's Services

27/41

BOOK REVIEWS

39