The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

50 BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C.1

President: PROFESSOR A. W. GOMME, F.B.A.

The Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies:

1. A Library of some 30,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.
2. Some 25,000 lantern slides covering the whole domain of ancient life and art.

Besides the general collection, there are sets of slides with lecture texts. Books and slides can be sent to Members by post.

Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian, at the above address.

By arrangement with the Society of Antiquaries the quarterly General Meetings are normally held in that Society's rooms at Burlington House, Piccadilly, W.1.

The Journal of Hellenic Studies, recognized at home and abroad as one of the foremost periodicals in the field of classical scholarship, contains articles by leading authorities, numerous illustrations, and reviews of recent books of importance to classical studies; it is normally published yearly as a single volume, which Members receive free of charge, the price to the public being £3.

The Annual Subscription to the Society is £2. The Composition Fee for life-membership is twenty guineas for persons over fifty years of age and thirty guineas for others. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £2 and £1 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary at the above address.

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

50 BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C.1

President: MISS M. V. TAYLOR, C.B.E., F.S.A.

The Society was formed to promote the study of the history, archaeology and art of Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire in general down to about A.D. 700. In particular, so far as its resources permit, and so far as is possible without prejudice to its wider objects, the Society endeavours to encourage the study of Britain under Roman occupation by devoting space in its Journal to articles on Romano-British history and archaeology.

The Society maintains, in conjunction with the Hellenic Society, a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of lantern slides. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, which can be sent to them by post, and may also consult books in the library of the London University Institute of Classical Studies, which is housed in the same building and is complementary to that of the Societies. Communications about books and lantern slides should be addressed to the Librarian.

Meetings for the reading and discussion of papers are held in the rooms of the Society of Antiquaries in Burlington House, Piccadilly, about four times a year. Meetings are also held in various parts of the country. Notices of all meetings are sent to members.

The Journal of Roman Studies, which is open to the contributions of both British and foreign scholars, and includes an annual summary of Romano-British discoveries, is published annually and is sent post free to all members at the end of the year.

The annual subscription for membership of the Society is £2. The composition fee for life membership is £21 for those over fifty years of age and £31 for others. Student-associates are admitted at the reduced subscription of £1.

All inquiries should be addressed to the Secretary.

The following may be procured from the Secretary of the Society:

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claims of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5 5s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association. They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 20s.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association (Mrs. Edna M. Hooker, M.A., The University, Edmund St., Birmingham, 3). Inquiries should be addressed to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (T. W. Melliish, M.A., Bec School, London, S.W.17, and Professor L. J. D. Richardson, M.A., University College, Cardiff), or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the Local Branches, viz., Aberystwyth, Bedford, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northampton, North Staffordshire, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Shrewsbury, Southampton, South Western (Exeter), Sussex, Swansea, Taunton, Tees-side, Worcester and Malvern.

Contributions to the JOURNAL should be sent to Prof. A. W. Gomme, Long Crendon, Aylesbury, Bucks.
Books intended for review should be addressed to The Librarian, Hellenic Society, 50 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1
