An International Journal

Edited by Janet Blackman and Keith Nield

Department of Economic and Social History, University of Hull

'Social History has without a doubt immediately established itself as enormously superior to all English-language journals in the field, with the possible exception of Past and Present.'

The Times Educational Supplement

Social History publishes the best work available in social historical writing of a theoretical and polemical kind as well as empirical analysis. The journal seeks to be international in content, to cover all periods, and to explore links with other disciplines that increasingly seek historical perspectives, especially sociology, social anthropology, politics, demography and studies of the process of economic development and growth.

Subscription Rates for 1983: Individuals (UK) £16.75 per annum;
Institutions (UK) £24.50 per annum; Individuals (Overseas) £20.00 per annum;
Institutions (Overseas) £27.00 per annum; Airmail £31.00 per annum;
Single copies £10.00

Frequency: Three issues per year (January, May and October)

SOCIAL CHANGE AS REDEFINITION OF ROLES

A Study of Structural and Causal Relationships in the Netherlands of the 'Seventies'

by Prof. Dr. I. Gadourek 1982. X + 522 pp. — ISBN 90 232 1898 1
Price: Dfl. 75.70

This book focusses on the ongoing changes in our societies, which are not guided or enacted by governments but are either of spontaneous or of diffused kind. The concept of social role plays a central part in these ongoing changes as it refers both to the actual habitual behaviour and to the normative aspects of it.

The book is a valuable source of knowledge of the Netherlands' Society in the "seventies" and of the changes in a western society in general.
