

advances

in psychiatric treatment

CPD Online

81 New from CPD Online

Articles

- 82 Genome-wide association studies: what a psychiatrist needs to know
Nick Craddock
- 89 Driving and dementia: a clinician's guide
Sarah Wilson & Gill Pinner
- 99 Adjustment disorder considered
Patricia Casey & Faraz Jabbar
- 108 Improve your management skills, improve your clinical service
Clare Oakley & Philip Sugarman
- 115 Crisis resolution and home treatment teams: an evolving model
Sonia Johnson
- 124 The psychodynamics of psychosis
Brian Martindale & Alison Summers
- 135 Forced marriage: implications for mental health and intellectual disability services
Bushra Rauf, Nadia Saleem, Rachael Clawson, Mandy Sanghera & Geoff Marston
- 144 Cultural factors and sexual dysfunction in clinical practice
Vishal Bhavsar & Dinesh Bhugra
- 153 Squaring the circle: developing clinical risk management strategies in mental healthcare organisations
Billy Boland & Sandy Bremner

Refreshment

- 97 The mental state examination
Sarah Huline-Dickens

Mindreading

- 132 The Quantity Theory of Insanity* by Will Self
Stephen Ginn

Cover image

In this issue, Wilson & Pinner (pp. 89–96) consider the psychiatrist's duty to advise drivers who develop dementia. They discuss the assessment of driving ability, preparing patients to give up driving and current legislation. Image: © iStockphoto/Willowpix.

<http://apt.rcpsych.org>

ISSN 1355-5146