

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31-34 Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1

President : Professor A. Andrewes, F.B.A.

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 36,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.
2. Some 15,000 lantern slides covering the whole domain of ancient life and art. Besides the general collection, there are sets of slides with lecture texts.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive free the Society's two annual publications : The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations, and book reviews ; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public at £3 and 7s. 6d. respectively.

The Annual Subscription to the Society is £2. The Composition Fee for life-membership is twenty guineas for persons over fifty years of age and thirty guineas for others. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £2 2s. and £1 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary at the above address.

The Classical Association

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education ; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching ; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries ; (d) to create opportunities for lovers of classical learning to meet.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5 5s.). Members receive free of charge a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association. They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review 37s. 6d., Quarterly 32s. 6d. ; combined subscription 67s. 6d.). Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 25s.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Professor L. A. Moritz, University College, Cardiff. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (Professor B. R. Rees, University College, Cardiff and Mr. T. W. Melluish, Bec School, S.W. 17) or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the District Branches—viz., Aberystwyth, Bangor, Bedford, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicestershire, Liverpool, London, Manchester, North Staffordshire, Northumberland and Durham, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Shropshire, Southampton, South-Western (Exeter), Sussex, Swansea, Tees-side, Worcester and Malvern.

Binding for the Journal of Roman Studies

Messrs. W. H. Smith and Son, Ltd., closed their Bindery at the end of last year and can no longer accept binding orders for the Journal.

Messrs. Stephen Austin and Sons, Ltd., Caxton Hill, Ware Road, Hertford, will undertake to bind volumes in brown buckram, lettered on the spine in gold to match the former standard binding, at an approximate cost of 55s. 6d. per volume. Postage chargeable extra.
