

Studies in Industry and Society

Philip B. Scranton, Series Editor

ADVERTISING PROGRESS

American Business and the Rise of Consumer Marketing

Pamela Walker Laird

"The strength of this book lies in the depth of evidence Laird offers . . . [Advertising agents,] Laird argues, deliberately set out to 'create consumers' rather than 'inform customers.'"

—Matthew Hilton, Business History

$19.95 paperback

COMPANY MEN

White-Collar Life and Corporate Cultures in Los Angeles, 1892-1941

Clark Davis

"A valuable contribution . . . [an] analysis of the corporate side of creating a white-collar work force [that] historians of business will find a valuable addition to the literature, while students of Los Angeles will welcome [as] a new study that adds significantly to the record of the city's past."

—Business History Review

$18.95 paperback

THE BALDWIN LOCOMOTIVE WORKS, 1831-1915

A Study in American Industrial Practice

John K. Brown

Recipient of the Hilton Book Award from the Railway and Locomotive Historical Society

"An exemplary volume that should join the essential works detailing the anatomy of late-nineteenth-century production."—Steven W. Usselman, Journal of Economic History

$19.95 paperback

American Industry

Johns Hopkins Studies in the History of Technology

Merritt Roe Smith, Series Editor

REINFORCED CONCRETE AND THE MODERNIZATION OF AMERICAN BUILDING, 1900-1930

Amy E. Slaton

"Solidly researched, clearly and soundly argued, Reinforced Concrete and the Modernization of American Building, 1900-1930 is an exciting and provocative contribution to our understanding of the intersections among commerce, technology, and science at the turn of the twentieth century."—Robert Friedel, University of Maryland, College Park

$42.50 hardcover

AMERICAN IRON, 1607-1900

Robert B. Gordon

Winner of the Association of American Publishers' Professional and Scholarly Publishing Award for General Engineering

"The best available history of the technology of American iron."—Business History

"A fascinating history of the iron industry . . . Gordon's strong interests in historic metallurgy and industrial archaeology provide a unique perspective that makes this a valuable addition to the literature."—Michigan Historical Review

$22.50 paperback

JOHNS HOPKINS

The Johns Hopkins University Press • 1-800-537-5487 • www.jhupbooks.com

New in Paperback

Financing the American Dream

A Cultural History of Consumer Credit
Lendol Calder

"Calder's work greatly increases our understanding of the rise of consumer culture in America."

—Jonathan Silva, The Historian

"A broadly researched book on the history of consumer credit that breaks new ground and revises prevailing views.... This finely written volume is a major contribution."—Choice

"A surprisingly lively book.... Calder writes forcefully and clearly. Occasionally, he can be downright lyrical."—Boston Globe

Paper $18.95 0-691-07455-0 Due May

Princeton University Press

800-777-4726 • WWW.PUP.PRINCETON.EDU

new from North Carolina

Navigating Failure

Bankruptcy and Commercial Society in Antebellum America

EDWARD J. BALLEISEN

"A richly textured, often riveting portrait of economic risk and the power of entrepreneurial spirit in mid-nineteenth-century America."—Bruce H. Mann, University of Pennsylvania 344 pp., 21 illus.

$49.95 cl / $18.95 pa

Luther Hartwell Hodges Series on Business, Society, and the State

The Most Valuable Asset of the Reich

A History of the German National Railway
Volume 2, 1933–1945

ALFRED C. MIERZEJEWSKI

"One of the most significant contributions yet to a notable recent literature on the adaptation of businesses to Nazism in order to negotiate their own survival."—Theo Balderston, University of Manchester

280 pp. $45.00 cl

Internal Improvement

National Public Works and the Promise of Popular Government in the Early United States

JOHN LAURITZ LARSON

"The single most important contribution to our understanding of antebellum American political economy in the last generation."—Peter S. Onuf, University of Virginia

344 pp. $55.00 cl / $19.95 pa

Much More Than a Game

Players, Owners, and American Baseball since 1921

ROBERT F. BURK

"A penetrating and savvy history of baseball's turbulent labor relations."—Andrew Zimbalist, author of Baseball and Billions

384 pp. $45.00 cl / $19.95 pa

— NEW IN PAPERBACK —

Never Just a Game

Players, Owners, and American Baseball to 1920

ROBERT F. BURK

"A meticulously researched account of the history of labour-management struggles. . . . Lively, highly readable. . . . filled with fascinating anecdotes."

—Business History

302 pp. $21.95 pa

1994 Macmillan-SABR Baseball Research Award, Society for American Baseball Research

A 1995 Choice Outstanding Academic Book

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA PRESS

at bookstores or [800] 848-6224 | www.uncpress.unc.edu

---

150 years of cutting-edge innovation

---

The FAMILY and...

The GENERATIONS of CORNING

The LIFE and TIMES of
A GLOBAL CORPORATION

DAVIS DYER and DANIEL GROSS

the PHILOSOPHY

---

What can you learn from someone on the cutting edge for 150 years? A lot!

Discover how an innovative philosophy—and the family behind it—helped Corning recreate itself, again and again, for over 150 years.

Visit our web site at www.oup-usa.org/biz

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Business & the Environment

Industrial Cowboys

Miller & Lux and the Transformation of the Far West, 1850-1920

David Igler

"Igler writes this intriguing history at the intersection of landscape, work and industry. He places the emergence of Western resource based corporations at the center of a set of cultural, economic, and natural changes that intersect and ramify in unforeseen directions."

—Richard White, author of

*"It's Your Misfortune and None of My Own":
A New History of the American West*

$37.50 cloth

Secure from Rash Assault

Sustaining the Victorian Environment
James Winter

New in Paperback—" [A] richly detailed, well-researched survey of the impact of industrialization and urbanization on the environment of nineteenth-century Britain."

—Patrick Brantlinger,
American Historical Review

$22.50 paper

At bookstores or order (800) 822-6657 • www.ucpress.edu

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

The Conquest of Labor

Daniel Pratt and Southern Industrialization

CURTIS J. EVANS

Evans presents an exhaustive portrait of Daniel Pratt, a nineteenth-century industrialist who started the largest cotton gin factory in the antebellum world and founded the manufacturing town of Prattville, Alabama.

“This vigorously argued biography of Pratt . . . also succeeds as a social history of Alabama factory life, its collapse during the Civil War, and its rebound during Reconstruction.”—John W. Quist, author of Restless Visionaries

SOUTHERN BIOGRAPHY SERIES
BERTRAM WYATT-BROWN, EDITOR

Illustrated, $49.95

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Baton Rouge 70803
(800) 861-3477 www.lsu.edu/lupress

Understanding Silicon Valley
The Anatomy of an Entrepreneurial Region

Edited by MARTIN KENNEY
What has made Silicon Valley so productive of new technologies and new firms?
Contributors from business, geography,
history, regional planning, and sociology
examine the history, development, and entrepreneurial dynamics of Silicon Valley.
$24.95 paper, $45.00 cloth

More Than They Promised
The Studebaker Story

THOMAS E.
BONSALL “Many books have chronicled the Studebaker story, but this one by noted
automotive historian Thomas Bonsall is undoubtedly the definitive work . . .
for anyone who wants a complete and highly accurate history of one of America’s longest lasting industrial giants.”
—Old Cars Weekly
$45.00 cloth

Economic Cold War
America’s Embargo Against China and the Sino-Soviet Alliance, 1949-1963

SHU GUANG ZHANG
Zhang examines how and why the United States and its allies instituted economic sanctions against the People’s Republic of China in the 1950s,
and how the embargo affected Chinese domestic policy and the Sino-Soviet
alliance.
Cold War International History Project Series, Copublication with the Woodrow Wilson Center
$49.50 cloth

Order Against Progress
Government, Foreign Investment, and Railroads in Brazil, 1854-1913

WILLIAM R.
SUMMERHILL III
This study presents a new and provocative picture of the impact of railroads on the Brazilian economy.
How did foreign investment in infrastructure affect a relatively backward Latin American economy?
The author engages this long-standing issue in Latin American history by applying the methods of the “new economic history” to the study of Brazilian railway development.
$55.00 cloth

Stanford University Press
www.sup.org
1-800-872-7423

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not concurrently under consideration elsewhere and that the material—in substance as well as form—has not been previously published.

Three copies of the manuscript should be submitted.

Authors should identify themselves only on a separate title page that provides name, mailing address, and telephone number. Authors must also remember not to identify themselves in the body of the manuscript; specifically, references to their own work in the text should be in the third person, and citations should be written without possessive pronouns—not “See my ....”

Potential contributors should initially submit hard copy, not diskettes, but it will save considerable work for all parties in the event of acceptance if authors follow a few rules from the beginning:

- In general, use as few formatting commands as possible.
- Left justify text.
- Do not hyphenate words at the end of lines.
- ALL material—including extracted quotations and notes—must be double spaced.
- Notes should be numbered consecutively and citations should be placed as footnotes or endnotes formatted as indicated by The Chicago Manual of Style (1993).
- Each table and figure must be accompanied by a complete source.

Each article should be accompanied by an abstract of 75 to 100 words outlining the main point(s) of the paper and placing the article in context. Subheads should be used to divide the manuscript into three or four sections (or more, depending on length). We do not have an upper or lower page limit, but articles usually run between 25 and 50 typescript pages, including notes and other material.

We are always eager to publish illustrations, but authors should not include originals of illustrative materials at the time of submission; photocopies of such material may be included. Authors are responsible for obtaining all illustrative materials and permissions for reproduction, and for writing captions.

Authors of accepted manuscripts will receive two copies of the issue in which the article appears, and twenty-five offprints.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

We use the 14th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (1993) and spell and hyphenate words according to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary.

The journal encourages authors to use gender-neutral prose in all cases where it is not anachronistic to do so; male nouns and pronouns should not be used to refer to people of both sexes. We use the day-month-year form for dates, as 11 Feb. 1998. Double quotation marks should be used for journal titles and direct quotation; single quotation marks are used for quoted material inside quotations.

SAMPLE CITATION FORMS

Book: Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., The Visible Hand: The Managerial Revolution in American Business (Cambridge, Mass., 1977), 321–22.

Journal: Charles Cheape, “Not Politicians but Sound Businessmen: Norton Company and the Third Reich,” Business History Review 62 (Autumn 1988): 444–66.

Note that we do not include the publisher in book citations. We do not use loc. cit., op. cit., or idem., but ibid. (not italicized) may be used.

<https://doi.org/10.1017/S0007880400076194> Published online by Cambridge University Press

0007-6805(200123)75:3:1-R