

News and Notes

Activities

Carl Q. Christol, University of Southern California, delivered an extended series of lectures at The Institute of Air and Space Law, McGill University, Montreal, Canada, January and April, 1979.

George Grayson, The College of William and Mary, is the recipient of a college research award. He is on leave for the spring term, 1978-79, to conduct research in Mexico on politics, energy resources and Mexican-American relations.

Margaret Hamilton, The College of William and Mary, is the recipient of a college research award. She was on leave during the fall semester, 1978-79 at Columbia University.

Lawrence E. Hough, West Carolina University, was selected as participant for an NSF/AAAS Chautauqua-type short course on "Congressional Reform and Reorganization," held at the University of Maryland November 20-21, 1978 and March 5-6, 1979.

Sandra-Wurth-Hough, East Carolina University, participated in the NSF Conference on the Emergence of the Global Society and Education for the Future at the University of Colorado-Boulder, November 10-11, 1978.

Chun-tu Hsueh, University of Maryland, lectured at Peking University, Fudan University (Shanghai), Chinan University (Canton), and several provincial academies of social sciences in northeast and central China, November-December, 1978.

David C. Leege, University of Notre Dame and director of the Center for the Study of Contemporary Society, was among "100 of the most respected emerging leaders in American higher education," selected by the American Council on Education and Change magazine. The designees are profiled in the October 1978 issue of Change.

Frank M. Lewis, University of Toledo, has received a grant from the government of Canada for the study of Canadian politics in Ottawa, spring quarter, 1979.

Manindra Mohapatra, Old Dominion University, was visiting lecturer at Utkal University, India, and Berhampur University, India, January, 1979.

Oral E. Parks, East Carolina University, attended the EDUCOM Fall Conference Workshops on shared computer facilities and network resources in Washington, D.C., November 14-16, 1978.

Richard C. Rich, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, has been named a consulting editor for the Journal of Applied Behavioral Research, and elected as a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Voluntary Action Scholars. Dr. Rich has also received a grant from the Ford Foundation to develop a special symposium issue of the Policy Studies Journal on the subject of the distribution of urban public services.

Ronal J. Stupak, The Federal Executive Institute, has served as a Career Development Consultant for the Presidential Management Internship Program under a Ford Foundation grant to the Institute for Public Affairs during 1978-79.

Raymond Tanter, University of Michigan, received a fellowship from the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars to conduct research in Washington, D.C. The topic is American Foreign Policy; From Ally to Mediator, and the fellowship period is for a year beginning September 1979.

A. J. Wann, University of Utah, has been appointed by Governor Scott Matheson as the State Hearing Officer to provide binding arbitration for grievance disputes arising under the Utah Civil Service Merit System.

Administrative Appointments

Donald J. Baxter, chairman, Department of Government, The College of William and Mary.

Itahak Galnoor, chairman, Department of Political Science, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Philip S. Gillette, chairman, Old Dominion University.

George R. Packard, dean, School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University; formerly Deputy Director of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars of the Smithsonian Institution.

Donald A. Robinson, director, American Studies Program, Smith College.

Peter J. Steinberger, chairman, Department of Political Science, Reed College.

Bruce C. Vladeck, assistant commissioner for Health Planning and Resource Development, New Jersey State Department of Health.

Frederic T. Watts, chairman, Elon College.

New Appointments

Allyn R. Brosz, assistant professor, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

Dan Caldwell, assistant professor, Pepperdine University-Malibu.

Nelson Charles Dometrius, assistant professor, Texas Tech University; formerly of North Carolina.

Thomas Ferguson, instructor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Willis D. Hawley, director of the Center for Educational Policy, Duke University.

Lauren Holland, assistant professor, University of Utah.

D. L. Hughes, assistant professor, Texas Tech University; formerly of North Texas State University.

Albert A. Navrinac has been named the Charles A. Dana Professor of Government, Colby College. He remains Chairman of the Department.

William Nicholls, assistant professor, Texas Tech University; formerly of University of Kentucky.

Michael Schatzberg, assistant professor, Virginia Institute and State University; formerly of Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Nancy Stetson, assistant professor, University of Utah.

Ann Walcott, assistant professor, Gustavus Adolphus College; formerly of Inver Hills Community College.

Promotions

Roger Bowen, Colby College: assistant professor.

Nazli Choucri, Massachusetts Institute of Technology: professor.

John P. Entelis, Fordham University: professor.

Justin J. Green, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University: assistant professor.

Ted R. I. Greenwood, Massachusetts Institute of Technology: associate professor.

Michael E. Kraft, University of Wisconsin, Green Bay: associate professor.

G. Calvin Mackenzie, Colby College: assistant professor.

Louis Sandy Maisel, Colby College: associate professor.

Jack Plano, Western Michigan University: chairperson.

Lee Sigelman, Texas Tech University: professor.

Benjamin W. Smith, California State University, Los Angeles: professor.

Rein Taagepera, University of California, Irvine: professor.

Kenneth A. Wagner, California State University, Los Angeles: professor.

Visiting and Temporary Appointments

Douglas E. Asford, visiting professor, Manchester University, 1979-80; Cornell University.

James W. Ceasar, visiting assistant professor, University of Virginia, spring and summer 1979.

Ralph M. Golman, visiting professor, University of California, San Diego, winter and spring 1979; San Francisco State University.

David Gordon, visiting professor, The College of William and Mary, 1978-79.

Chun-tu Hsueh, visiting lecturer, Harvard University, summer 1979.

Roberta Ann Johnson, visiting lecturer, University of California, Santa Cruz.

Lawrence D. Longely, Lawrence University, will be on leave from June to December 1979 as a visiting scholar in the Department of Political Science, Northwestern University.

Robert Scigliano, visiting scholar; University of Virginia, spring 1979.

P. J. Vatikiotis, visiting professor, Union College.

Fred W. Zuercher, University of South Dakota, is serving on leave as Secretary of Public Safety for the State of South Dakota.

Corrections

Mary Jane Barthwell was incorrectly listed in the Winter 1979 PS as visiting assistant professor at Howard University. It should have been listed as on leave from Rutgers University while working as Political Affairs Officer at the United Nations. PS regrets the error.

In Memoriam

Alan A. Aichinger

Alan A. Aichinger, 35, died on December 28, 1978, in the Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland, Ohio. Alan's father, Mr. Alexander Aichinger, preceded him in death by one week. He is survived by his mother, Francis, and his brother, Alexis.

Born in 1943, Alan received his bachelor's degree from Marietta College in 1965, and his doctorate from the University of Chicago in 1970. He thereafter joined the Department of Political Science at Ohio University, where he served until illness forced his retirement in 1977. On a leave of absence in 1976, he served with the North Atlantic Assembly in Brussels as Chairman of the Committee on Education, Information and Cultural Affairs.

He taught in the fields of American government and political theory, his special interests being