Polar Record (ISSN 0032-2474) is published four times yearly — in January, April, July, and October — the four issues making a volume. First published in January 1931, Polar Record appeared twice yearly until July 1954 and three times yearly until September 1987. Scholarly contributions are invited on virtually all subjects of polar interest. For information on contributions, see 'Instructions for authors,' in Polar Record 34 (188): 76–78, January 1998, or write The Editor, Polar Record, Scott Polar Research Institute, University of Cambridge, Lensfield Road, Cambridge CB2 1ER, UK.

COVER PICTURE		Although the polar bear is not currently designated an endangered species, its Arctic habitat is threatened by pollution, and its future remains uncertain. The late Daniel A. Guravich (see obituary beginning page 167) raised public understanding of the species and promoted long-term polar-bear conservation. The Polar Bears Alive organisation continues his work.
